

A Midland Ontario Morning

Alan Millar, host of the CBC-FM regional radio broadcast, Ontario Morning, left, interviewed Historic Naval and Military Establishments employee Frank Milligan, among others, during a recent live broadcast from the Budd Watson Gallery.

Two families off to Australia

Two local high school teachers have found a novel way to escape the Canadian winter. As part of an international teaching exchange, they're taking their families to Australia. Alan Margison, head of the math department at EDHS, will trade jobs with Don McInnes, from the town of Waikerei, near Adelaide. Richard Austin, the school's resource and withdrawal teacher, will spend the 1982 calendar year at Monterey Technical School in Frankston, near Melbourne. His exchange partner is Graeme Jones.
