

Obituary

Kevin Manuel

The death occurred on Dec. 13, 1981, at Little Lake Park, Midland, of Kevin James Manuel, of 334 Cedar Street, Midland. Manuel and a companion drowned when their snowmobile broke through ice on the lake. He was 15 years of age.

A memorial service was held in Calvary Baptist Church at 7 p.m. on Dec. 17. Officiating clergymen were Dr. Ivan C. Morgan of Burlington, Ont., and Rev. Rob Campbell of St. Thomas, Ont.

Interment to be decided.

The Calvary Baptist Church choir sang God gives His people strength. The church was full for the joint memorial service for Kevin Manuel and Louise Reed. An estimated 400 persons attended.

Surviving him are his parents, James and Sandra Manuel of Midland, his brother Gordon, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crerar, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Manuel, all of Stratford, Ont.

Born in Collingwood, Kevin Manuel attended public school in Scarborough until February of 1980, when his family moved to Midland. He attended Grade 8 at Huron Park School, and Grades 9 and 10 at Midland Secondary School.

He was a member of the Midland Junior Civitan Club, and of a youth group at Calvary Baptist Church. On Saturdays he worked at Holders Bakery.

He attended Calvary Baptist Church, where his father is the pastor. Last year he was a member of the Midland Keegoes swim team and was in the process of obtaining his bronze medallion from the YMCA.

We're ringing in best wishes for the new year!

Doing business with you has been a pleasure! From all of us to all of you: A Very Happy New Year..
