He was a member of the United Church of Canada. He was a member of Royal Canadian Legion, Midland, St. John Ambulance Association (Kapuskasing) and the Carpenter and Joiners Union (Midland and District). As a member of the Canadian Armed Forces, he saw active service from Feb. 13, 1945, until July 29, 1946. He was discharged under routine order 1029 (5c.1).

White Cane Week

Canadian National Institute for the Blind and The Canadian Council of the Blind's co-sponsored White Cane Week will be held this year from Feb. 7-13. "During this special education week we would urge you to participate in White Cane Week by learning more about blindness, how you can assist a visually impaired person and blindness prevention," said CNIB Managing Director Robert F. Mercer.

All across Canada special events, exhibits and displays, open houses and media promotions will be alerting Canadians to the need for eye safety both on the job and at home.

"This year's White Cane Week slogan is 'Blindness Is Everyone's Concern'.
