Wyevale

$200 raised

by Jeanne Webb

February was Heart Month. We would like to thank all those who contributed so generously to this worthy cause. Our own village raised $200 exactly, towards helping to save lives. Many thanks to those also who helped with the canvassing.

Spring has sprung! The sap is running and the first robins have been spotted. They were near the phone booth, maybe sending a message back to the others. We also heard that the first lambs are here, and others on their way. Julie Barker will be a busy midwife for a while.

Mrs. Pauline Hamelin staged a surprise party for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Horsefall, on March 13. The Horsefalls' have their Silver Anniversary coming up very soon. A few close friends and relatives were invited to help celebrate.

The Wyevale Free Methodist Church was host to a group of Young People, on March 13. They hailed from Huntsville, Orillia and Barrie. The day was spent at the Orange Centre, with an interesting program of games and fellowship.

Everyone brought sack lunches for noon, then Kentucky Fried Chicken and salads was the dinner menu. A film in the evening, Where Eagles Fly, ended a most enjoyable day.

The Wyevale Recreation Group Committee is busy selling tickets for their dance, March 27.

Ten counts of break, enter, theft laid by police forces

A Midland area man, Rory Smith, 17, has been charged with three counts of break, enter, and theft, and one count of failing to appear for fingerprints, by the Midland OPP, and, by the Midland town police, with four counts of break, enter, and theft, one count concerning a Gloucester Street residence, and three counts concerning a Dominion Avenue residence.

Jim Thompson, 16, of Eighth Street, Midland, has also been charged by the Midland OPP with one count of break, enter, and theft, and, by the Midland town police, with two more counts, in connection with a Dominion Avenue residence. The break, enter, and theft charges against Smith laid by the OPP result from three separate break-ins of a Centennial Drive, Sunnyside residence, on March 10, March 8, and Feb. 26.

Slightly more than $200 in property was taken in total from the Sunnyside house.

The four break-ins of the Gloucester Street and Dominion Avenue residences took place between Jan. 16 and March 4.

Community saddened by loss

by Jeanne Webb

Wyevale Community was saddened by the loss of one of its well known and loved senior citizens. Mr. Walter Webb, of the 4th Concession of Tiny, beloved husband of Iva Large, passed away at Penetanguishene General Hospital on March 15.

The funeral service was held at the Lynn Funeral Home in Midland, on March 18 at 2 p.m. Reverend John Locke, from the United Church Wyevale, conducted the service, with Rev. Gordon Johnston (former United Church minister here) assisting. Very fitting and fine eulogies were given by both clergymen.

Mr. Webb will be greatly missed by family and friends. Deepest sympathy is extended from the community.

Solicitor gets his marching orders

Douglas Haig, solicitor for the Town of Midland has been directed to file an Appearance on behalf of the town and clerk and to inform the town's insurers of a writ of summons and statement of claim against the town.

The writ appeals the imposition of a special assessment on properties affected by a local improvement project on Norene Street.

The Wyevale Recreation Group is busy selling tickets for their dance, March 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hastings have just returned from two weeks in Florida. They both have brought back a good share of Florida tan with them.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horsefall were pleasantly surprised on

PGH births

Also on March 18, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Robinson of RR 3, Penetanguishene, became the parents of a girl weighing five pounds seven ounces.

On March 15, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dion of 16 came the parents of a girl weighing five pounds seven ounces. On March 15, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dion of 16 the evening of March 16. Several friends and neighbours popped in on them to help celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The community presented them with a lovely plant made into a money tree, also two family photo frames.

Everyone enjoyed a social evening, along with the lunch plus the beautiful anniversary cake.

Mr. George Prince, a former resident of Wyevale, passed away March 18, in his 81st year. The funeral service was held at the Mundell Funeral Home in Orillia, March 21, at 2 p.m. Sympathy is extended to his sister, Mrs. Lillian Hall and family, also to the Campbell's, relatives of Minnie (Campbell) Prince.

Fox Street, Penetanguishene, became the parents of a girl weighing seven pounds 15 ounces.
