

Keegos nab 12th

The Midland Y Keegos Swim Club came up with a 12th place out of 19 clubs in last weekend's Ontario AAA Swimming Championships, at the Etobicoke Olympium.

The Keegos' respectable finish was aided by strong individual performances from Anne Leavens, Chris Leavens, J.J. Gorman, Andre Bourrie and veteran Greg Vogt, who returned to the Keegos for the meet after swimming most of the past season at McMaster University in Hamilton.

Nine Keegos club records were broken in the event. They were:

-- Anne Leavens (Girls' 11-12) 100m individual medley, 6:18.62; 200m flystroke, 3:00.01.

-- Joel Magnan (Boys' 10 and under) 200m individual medley, 3:06.57; 100m breaststroke, 1:36.14; 50m breaststroke, 44.72 seconds.

J.J. Gorman (Boys' 11 and 12) 100m individual medley, 5:55.93; 400m freestyle, 4:58.62; 200m flystroke, 2:48.62;

--Andre Bourrie, (Boys' 15 and over) 200m flystroke, 2:23.16.

Huron District records broken by Keegos swimmers were:

--J.J. Gorman (Boys' 11-12) 100m individual medley, 5:55.93; 400m freestyle, 4:58.62.

-- Andre Bourrie (15 and over) 200m flystroke, 2:23.16.

Other Keegos taking part in the

Key meet

The Midland Badminton Club's mens' and ladies' singles titles will be up for grabs Tuesday as the club winds up its in-house tournament schedule at Midland Secondary School.

Last Tuesday, Brian Emery and Ernie Nielson came up with the Mens' doubles' crown and Katherine Battrick and Kathy Playne scooped up the ladies' doubles title.

In previous mixed doubles finals, Dorothy Wood and Nielson beat out Tom Downer and Joanna Roberts.

Government Bill C-40

Government Bill C-40 states that widows / widowers of disabled veterans who were in receipt of a disability pension at the time of death, can now apply to the Canadian Pension Commission for the proportionate part of that pension.
