

Top-flight battle for $900

Sixteen teams from Guelph, Kitchener, Toronto and other southern, central (and possibly northern) Ontario centres will do battle with local clubs for the $900 top prize in the first annual Midland Jaycees Fastball Tournament, slated for June 18-20.

province have been invited. Second prize will be $500, third will be $300 and the fourth-place finishers will pick up $200. A beer garden has been approved for the tournament and a dance has been scheduled for the Saturday evening.

Midland Jaycees president Mike Peach says invitations have been issued to 40 Intermediate and Senior clubs around the province to fill the 16 spots in the tourney.

Local teams which have agreed to enter include the Athenian Raiders, the Elmvale Sporting Goods and the Barrie Downtowners. Teams from Guelph, Kitchener, Toronto, one team from Sudbury, and other top squads from the southern part of the
