

He had a good angle

When the cloud of dust raised by the stampede of hopeful anglers at Saturday's trout season opening had finally settled, a few lucky locals did manage to catch a few. Most anglers will admit rivers were filled to capacity with fish -- as well as fishermen. Due to the celebrations and festivities which occurred through the night, however, most fish sought quieter quarters for the remainder of the day, leaving many anglers high and dry. Here, Mike Brammell shows part of his weekend catch after finding a quiet stretch on the Coldwater River.

of Sharon Edwards and Kelly Hawke and Charlotte Kramp in the girls' singles event all came close in the Orillia competition.

Local players in that division were Richie Dusome and Noel Duquette of ESPSS and Don Cadieux and Tim Trewin from St. Theresa's.

Kathy McCracken of Eastview won the girls' singles title with an 11-8, 11-2 whopping of Sandra Snell from Bracebridge Secondary School.

Mary Pat Quilty of St. Theresa's and Lynn Bonneville of ESPSS also competed in that division.

Other local players in the GB finals were Kathy King and Keith Maracle of ESPSS in the mixed doubles' section.

Several Midland Secondary School players fell just short of qualifying for the GB finals after reaching the quarter-finals in the

FIND THE "O"
NAME THE "SHOW"
CONTEST

Sponsored by The Midland Times & Babcock Bros. Theatres, including:
O Deon Theatre, Midland Drive-in and Pen Twin Theatres

The ODeon Theatre has a new name. We took the "O" off Odeon and have hidden it. If you can find its location and / or come up with the new name for the show in Midland, you could win. Clues will appear in Wednesday issues of: The Midland Times, The Penetanguishene Citizen and Elmvale Lance.

- 1) Follow the clues and try to locate the missing "O" from the ODeon Theatre
- 2) Guess what the new name of the show is. Fill out the ballot and drop it off or mail it to:
The Midland Times, 309 King St., Box 609, Midland
The Penetanguishene Citizen, 75 Main St., Box 429, Penetanguishene
Elmvale Lance, 15 Queen St., Box 339, Elmvale
