World-record feat

Midland photographer Budd Watson has come up with another first in what seems to be a never ending series of exceptional achievements in the world of photography. He has created the largest one piece photograph in North America and maybe even the world. The photograph measures 6 feet by 9 feet and is presently hanging in the front foyer of Budd's Gallery on Hugel Avenue. Some interesting facts relating to the photograph are awe inspiring. The paper that the photo is printed on was made available by Kodak only 5 weeks ago and comes in a roll 6 feet wide. The picture was taken on a 5 inch by 7 inch negative and portrays a cluster of crocuses in a beaver pond near Port Severn. After developing it is printed on the largest enlarger in North America, and developed in eight gallons of developing chemistry. The cost for one of these beauties is $3,750.00 and if you want it in a limited edition it is worth $7,500.00.
