

Tiny endorses motion

by Adrienne Graham Gardner

Tiny and Midland have finally agreed on something.

Tiny council Wednesday endorsed a resolution by Midland asking "the Government of Ontario to require all taxing authorities under its control to bill their ratepayers directly for the taxes which they are authorized to levy."

Increases in County and school board requirements have hit many municipal budgets hard this year.

Midland's resolution says the inclusion of these outside requirements in municipal tax bills "tends to undermine the principle of political accountability by confusing in a single bill, three different taxes for three different purposes, by three different taxing authorities."

Midland's resolution is one of the best on the subject encountered by Tiny council to date. Reeve Morris Darby suggested that copies of the resolution and of Tiny's endorsement be sent to the provincial government, local MPP's and the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO).
