

Boars bear down hard

Toronto Boar's Head came up with the championship at last weekend's 12-team Midland-Penetang Ball Hockey League annual Spring Tournament with a 5-1 victory over the local S. Charlebois Haulage Diggers in Sunday's final game. Boar's Head, from the top-level Tier I of the Toronto Metro Ball Hockey League system, topped 11 other entries to bag the championship crown, including the scoring of an impressive 7-5 decision over another MTBHL Tier I team, Spring tourney defending-champ Northwest Toronto.

The Diggers' lone goal in the final was scored by Dan St.Amant. Bill Puddicombe and Glen Irvine shared the Diggers' arduous netminding chores.

The Diggers had an easier time of it in the semi-final, though, as they topped another local squad, the Penetanguishene Legion Branch 68 Eagles, 4-1 in a spirited local matchup which got a little out of hand in the dying seconds.

Two players, one from the Diggers and one from the Eagles, will be suspended from MP-bHL play as the result of an encounter in those last few seconds.

According to league president Rob Scheniman, the Diggers' Peter Robillard was speared by the Eagles' Roland Beausoleil with less than 10 seconds showing on the clock. No penalty was called on the play, and another Diggers player, Robillard's brother Jamie, lept over the boards and attempted to spear Beausoleil.

The pair of incidents will net Jamie Robillard an eight-game suspension while Beausoleil will sit out the next five Eagles games.

Also, according to Scheniman, other recent incidents have caused concern among MPMBHL players about the rules allowing body contact.

The subject will be among the major issues discussed at a special league general meeting this Sunday in the Penetanguishene Arena Lounge.

All team reps are urged to attend the meeting, which will get underway at 3 p.m.

Special matchup

The Penetang-Midland Ball Hockey League will chip in to the current Penetanguishene General Hospital fund-raising campaign with an exhibition matchup between a PMBL All-Star squad and a team made up of league players from the local Junior C hockey ranks.

The special game has been scheduled for June 12 at Penetanguishene Arena. It'll start at 8 p.m.

Among the members of the Junior C lineup will be Carl Cowan and Dave Robillard, two high-powered forwards who helped the Penetanguishene Kings to the Ontario Hockey Association semi-finals the past season.

Busy blocker

Craig Watson of Stewart's Gulf Oilers was kept busy during last weekend's annual Midland-Penetang Ball Hockey League Spring Tournament at Penetanguishene Arena. The Oilers were one of three local teams in the 12-club event, and took a couple of bad beatings from their early-round opponents. Toronto Boar's Head won the championship with a 5-1 decision over the S. Charlebois Haulage Diggers.
