Cave sinks Sumbmarine

The Cave Restaurant scored their second win in three outings with a 5-2 victory over Mr. Submarine in Olympia Baseball League action Wednesday at Midland's arena diamond. Doug McGibbon earned the victory by pitching five solid innings. Dennis Gignac was put in for relief for the final two frames. Coke Crawley and Fabian Robitaille each crossed the plate twice for the Cave and Bob Leveck counted for the other run. The Cave is one of a group of three teams with 2-1 records in the eight-team loop, one point back of undefeated Christian Island. Next game for the Cave is slated for next Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Midland's arena diamond against winless Dial-a-Movie.

Simcoematic sneaks by 12-10

Simcoematic Canteen snuck by the Weekend Warriors 12-10 Wednesday night to remain undefeated in Huronia Slow Pitch action this season. The win brings them to within one point of front-runner Goman Boats in the West Division with a game in hand.

Goman Boats maintained their lead by crushing Steelbrite 24-13 on Tuesday.

The Warriors managed one win during the week to go with the loss to Simcoematic, however,

Double play for QB

Friesen, quarterback of the MSS Mauraders squad, won Most Valuable Player and Best Offensive Backfield Player awards at the annual presentation ceremony.

The school's top athletic awards were won by Mike Josland, Male Athlete of the Year, and Lisa McKelvie, Female Athlete of the Year.

Glenn Haughton was recognized as the Most Valuable Player on the Senior boys' basketball team and Angie Pumpulis earned the award for Senior girls' basketball team MVP.

Other winners of the Karwacki Football Awards were Steve Frost, Best Offensive Lineman; Arnold German, Best Defensive Backfield Player; and Wilson Cowan, Best Defensive Lineman.

Boys' athletic letter winners were John Friesen, Mike Josland, Steve Frost, Jerry Richard and Kent Goldsmith.

Girls' athletic letter winners were Joanelle Bourgeois, Lori Chambers, Tina Lehr, Stacey Leach, Angie Pumpulis, Mary Russell, Kim Shaw, Tracey Vent and Lynn Moore.

beating Ogilvie Mills 30-11.

In other action, the Dollartown Saints stayed atop the East Division with a pair of victories, 10-8 over Fred Hook's and 14-8 over Donut Villa.

Donut Villa had a tough time, as they were blasted 25-4 by Greening-Donald earlier in the week. They were victims of a fine pitching effort by Ed Hubbard, with relief from Ed Desjardins. Backing the pitchers with home runs were John Jones, Scott Winstanley-Hayes and Raymond Forget.

In the only other game, Ogilvie Mills lost its second game of the week, 11-5 to Leitz. Paul Henderson was the winning pitcher in that one.
