July 10 - It'll be a red letter day

Plans have been finalized for the official dedication of Midland Town Centre's revitalized downtown core.

The ceremony is scheduled for Saturday morning, July 10, just prior to commencement of Shonnecti.

Special guests invited and expected to attend, though not all confirmed are Premier Davis, Housing Minister Claude Bennett, MPP Al McLean and MP Doug Lewis as well as Mayor Moreland Lynn and local Councillors.

As an added attraction, the BIA has decided to hold a "Miss Midland Town Centre" contest with the winner to share opening ribbon-cutting ceremonies with the V.I.P.'s and to represent the business core during various promotions throughout the balance of the year. Selection of Miss Midland Town Centre will take place Tuesday evening July 6 at a special informal BIA get-together at the Budd Watson Gallery. Between now and June 30, the BIA urges members to select and sponsor a young lady from 15 to 18 years of age to compete in this contest.

Gary Greer will be MCing the evening and the judging panel will consist of three men and two women.

Free coffee, some early morning cit chat, and a chance to get in on the ground floor of October's Homecoming '82 celebrations -- all are offered Thursday morning in the Dominion Street council chambers between 7:45 and 8:45 a.m.

Members of the Homecoming '82 organizing team will be there -- Fred Hacker, Mary Gibson, Buzz Brown, Ken Walker, Shirley Whittington, Fred Flood, and Harry Cox -- along with dozens of other interested citizens who are anxious to be part of the town's pride and hospitality event.

Organizers promise that several surprises will be unveiled at the coffee party. "We're also looking for ideas from the people who come," says Homecoming Chairman Fred Hacker. "And I know our committee will be ready to answer any questions that may arise."

No change in town's position

There's still no word on if and when the Ontario Police Commission will conduct a study of the Midland Police Department.

Under terms of the Police Act the Commission must make a study of a force which intends to cut staff. In Midland's case the town wants to drop one Civilian Radio Operator.

They're off

A total of 30 Grade 4 pupils from Parkview Public School, Midland, are attending Camp Kitchikewana this week from June 15-18.

The town's public safety committee, at its May 10 meeting, reinforced council's position on the need to reduce staff within the police force.
