

Hurons begin gym camp sign-ups

The Hurons Gymnastics Club will begin taking registrations for its Summer Day Camp tomorrow night at Corpus Christi School in Penetanguishene.

Tomorrow's registration will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The sign-up will continue next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Corpus Christi.

The camp consists of four two-week sessions which begin June 28, July 12, July 26 and Aug. 9.

Cost is $25 a session, and a $5 discount is allowed for two sessions.

A maximum of 45 registrations will be taken for each session.

The camp is for both beginner and experienced gymnasts, with the experienced athletes taking the morning sessions and the beginners taking over the afternoons each day.

For further information call coaches John Turner at 526-6007 or Ken St. Amant at 526-3992.

Balancing your days

Learning some of the complex manoeuvres on the balance beam will be just one part of the program at the upcoming Hurons Gymnastics Club Summer Day Camp, a series of four two-week sessions for area youngsters interested in picking up on some of the skills and fitness advantages of the sport of gymnastics. Registration begins tomorrow night at Corpus Christi School in Penetanguishene. (Photo by Bruce Finlayson)
