

Take the long road

Travellers taking Highway 27 between Waverley and Elmvale this summer have to allow for the disruption of construction on the highway and in the village. Yonge Street north, in Elmvale, above, is being widened to match Yonge Street south. Highway 27 is being rebuilt and widened on the hills.

Owen receives bouquet

Midland Clerk Mike Owen came in for a verbal bouquet during Monday night's regular sitting of town council. Alderman Richard Platt praised Owen for being re-appointed to the 11-member board of the Ontario Association of Committees of Adjustment and Land Division Committees. Owen was named chairman of the association's education committee.

It's the second year in a row that the Midland clerk has been appointed to the board which represents about 650 members in the province.

Circus coming

June 24 the unique sounds, sights and smells of a real old fashioned tent Circus will seep into the hearts and souls of children of all ages in Penetanguishene as the all new 1982 edition of the Martin and Downs Circus presents two performances at 6 and 8:15 p.m. under the sponsorship of the local Recreation Department.

Adults wishing to relive childhood memories or to introduce their children or grandchildren to the magic of the big top, are invited to the showgrounds at Waterfront Park on Circus morning to see the raising of the big top and the feeding of the animals.

Sidewalk Sale clears last remaining hurdle

Midland Town Centre BIA has been given the go-ahead to stage its annual Sidewalk Sale and Fun Days, July 15-17, in downtown Midland.

The green light was given by town council during Monday night's regular monthly meeting of local lawmakers.

Meanwhile Liz Downer, BIA manager, is to meet with members of the town's public safety committee and Bylaw Enforcement Officer Mike Chapman prior to the event to discuss methods of screening and controlling exhibitors and sellers who are not connected to the BIA.
