Grossman does the honours

June 16, the Hon. Larry Grossman, minister of health, "kicked off" 1982 Heart Jamboree at a special ceremony at which nursing home residents from across Ontario were guests.

Two residents from each of the Ontario Nursing Home Association's seven regions were invited to attend. Representatives of the local Region 5 were Walter Ens, administrator of St. Andrew's Centennial Manor, Mrs. Marie Bell and Mrs. Madge Stitt, residents of St. Andrew's, and Kate Thomson, student activity staff-member.

The mayor of Mississauga welcomed the guests to the Chelsea Park Nursing Home in Streetsville. Grossman was the special speaker and delightful entertainment included music and comedy by several celebrities.

The 1982 Heart Jamboree is co-sponsored by the Ontario Nursing Home Association and the Ontario Heart Foundation, with a target of $50,000.

Spring '82 was a super success

With the end of school this week, the group program for Spring '82 draws to a close at the Wye Marsh Wildlife Interpretation Centre in Midland.

Almost 4,000 students, 4-H groups, Brownies and Cubs enjoyed the guided and self-guided nature activities at the Centre.

Groups ranged in size from nine or 10 to 100 and covered every age from kindergarten to senior citizens visiting from as far away as Sudbury, Sarnia and Kingston and as close as Toronto and Midland.

"The most rewarding part, of course, is the response from the students when they write back after the trip and send us drawings and letters", said Mrs. Eva Kaiser, assistant biologist.

One grade 5 class from Maple Grove Public School in Barrie wrote, "Thank you for the most fantastic day, the trails you took us on are fun"; "I'm begging my Dad to bring me back again"; "My favorite part was the underwater window"; My favorite time of the day (besides lunch) was when I got soaked and catching frogs"; "When I fell in I found a water spider in my rubber boot."

"While not all of the classes get this involved," said Mrs. Kaiser, "the students learn a great deal and have fun too."
