

From family album

Here's another picture-from-the-past for your Penetanguishene Centennial Scrapbook. (Remember your book could win a cash prize.) This picture appeared in a Montreal newspaper in 1928 which depicted a well-known family from North Simcoe. Back row Issac, Docette, Jerome, Jean Marie, Urbain, Emerile and Medard. Front row Celima Blondin and her eight daughters; Sister Ste. Zelic (alive 97), Sister Emiliana (alive 92), Sister Modesta and Sister Ste. John of Egypt, Rose Anne, Zelic, Claire and Antonia.
