

Bopping on the beach

The Midland Volleyball Club has provided an alternative for beach bums tired of just lying around on a blanket.

The club, in co-operation with the Town of Midland Parks and Recreation department, is offering free volleyball equipment and the free use of its beach volleyball court facilities at Little Lake Park.

As few as two or a whole group can sign out the equipment from the Midland arena office and spike away a sunny afternoon in the hot sand.

If you want to know a little bit more about the game before you start, you can attend one of the club's free adult recreational programs, held each Wednesday night from 7 to 9 at the Little Lake beach courts.

And to get you right into the swing of things, the club will be hosting a mens' and womens' triples (three on a team) tournament this Saturday.

It'll be the first of four tournaments the club will hold this summer, and you can take part by registering at 10 a.m. Saturday at the courts. Cost for the event is $15 a team and prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be available all day.

The club is also considering a volleyball camp for kids for the week of Aug. 23-27.

Bowen, Dove pace win

Jerry Bowen and Stephen Dove scored two goals apiece to pace the Elmvale Senior soccer team to a 6-0 victory over Penetanguishene in a minor soccer exhibition match at Elmvale District High School last Wednesday.

Penetanguishene turned the tables in the Junior matchup, clobbering the host squad 5-1.

Other Elmvale Senior marksmen were James Elliott and Derek Leneew.

Penetanguishene Junior goal-getters were Aaron Brophy, with three, and Paul Desroches with a pair. David Chambers scored the lone Elmvale goal.

In Elmvale Minor Soccer Association regular league action last Saturday, the Raiders dumped the Cosmos 5-3 in Senior division play and the Lizzards blanked the Falcons 3-0 in the Junior matchup.

Derek Leneew scored twice to lead the Raiders to victory and singles were added by Joey Beltrame, Jerry Bowen and Stephen Dove.

Cosmos goal scorers were Joe Davidson, Scott Kirton and Andy Beardsall.

Stephen Dyce scored twice for the Lizzards and David Chambers had the other.

Nice racquet

The new Penetanguishene Tennis Club will kick off its inaugural season with a "Friendly Tournament" Saturday at the Memorial Park courts.

The tournament, a mens' and ladies' doubles affair, carries an entry qualification of a valid membership plus $2 to cover the cost of tennis balls and prizes.

Memberships will be available at courtside.

The event, slated to start at about 8:30 a.m., is being held to attract more members to the club and serve an introductory get-together for the approximately 40 players already signed up.
