

GOOD LUCK, BRAVES!

Here are Midland's 19 young ambassadors of goodwill who are representing Midland at the National Championship Lacrosse Tournament in British Columbia over the next week. The Midland Peewee Braves, led by coach Gary Price and managers Brian Walser and Jack Scott, will get rolling today with a 12:30 p.m. (Pacific) game against St. Catharines. Then it's four in a row, with the crew taking on Kitimat, B.C., tomorrow; the MSAA Reps (representing four B.C. towns) on Friday; Port Coquitlam, B.C., on Saturday and Langley, B.C., on Sunday. Playoffs begin Monday and the championship is slated for Tuesday.
