Powder Puff League wrapup

by Susan Geroux
The Ladies Powder-Puff Recreational Baseball League is nearing the end of its season and the calibre of baseball has much improved over the first few games.

Thursday, the Blue Flames were defeated by the first-place Powder Blues by a score of 11-7.

For the winning team, fine defensive action was shown by Gail Hamelin and Joan Ridyard. Gail fielded two good catches in her position at third base to retire two players in the first inning. Joan (right field) was instrumental in causing an out on second in the fifth inning.

Blue Flames' second-baseman Joan Grise instigated a double play and pitcher Carole Cruise hit a triple and also struck out five
