HISTORICAL INTERPRETERS

Sainte-Marie among the Hurons is accepting applications for the positions of Historical Interpreters.

Successful applicants will be required to communicate to site visitors various aspects of 17th century French and Native cultures, related to the history of the mission, in a guided tour format.

Applicants should:

- have a sound background in the history of the area and the site
- be interested in expanding that knowledge through research and study
- be able to communicate effectively to people of all ages
- be able to communicate in French and English (Any other language would be an asset.)

The work term starts September 1 and extends to October 11, 1982. Hours of work are "as required" and coincide with visitor demand.

Application deadline August 18, 1982.

Send applications to:
