

Couple marks golden wedding anniversary

by Ev Walker
Edwin and Isabel Walker of Midland celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with family and friends at a party held in their honour at the Hunter's and Angler's building, July 17.

The couple's wedding attendants of 50 years ago once again witnessed the occasion.

Isabel's brother, Lloyd Brown of Cambridge was best man and the groom's sister, Wilma Paton of Fergus was the bride's maid of honour.

Also here for the occasion were Isabel's sister, Mrs. Jean Hunter of Guelph; Edwin's brother Errol Walker from London; Mrs. Rosemary Bird from Ariss; Mrs. Norma Warmington from Guelph, along with several nieces and nephews from around Ontario.

Friends came from Toronto, Kitchener, Owen Sound, Markham, Barrie, Alliston and area and two couples came from Massachusetts representing Lions, Lioness, Masons, Shriners, Eastern Star and Camper's Cove, Florida.

An open house took place in the afternoon. Several V.I.P.'s were there to express their good wishes: MPP Al McLean; MP Doug Lewis; Mayor M. Lynn and Simcoe County Warden Russell Cooper.

Plaques were received from Joe Clark, Pierre Elliot

Trudeau, and Bill Davis.

In the evening a dance was held and at this time the family was introduced.

Present were their six children and spouses, 16 grandchildren, three of them married and three great grandchildren.

No action by OMB yet

No action has yet been taken by Ontario Municipal Board concerning a letter of opposition it has received from Indusmin concerning plans by the Town of Midland to rezone property between the Bayshore Drive lookout and waterfront so as to allow construction of a 60-unit time-share complex inspired by Annedol Investments.

Indusmin's opposition centres around the company's concern regarding future problems related to proposed waterfront development by the investment company.
