CHINON

CM4S
The Chinon CM-4 is a versatile 35mm SLR camera that offers simple, matched LED operation. Its low price makes it a leader among SLR's of its class. It's easy to set it for perfect exposure. Either select the aperture and adjust the shutter speed or select the speed and adjust the aperture. Either way, a green indicator light will show when the correct combination, for correct exposure, has been achieved.

Full lens interchangeability
The facility to change lenses opens up the whole field of creative photography. With the Chinon CM-4, a full range of lenses can be used, from wide angle to telephoto, in addition to standard lenses. The Chinon CM-4 has a rapid, simple-to-use bayonet system that will accept all "K"-mount bayonet type lenses.
