

Hitting the bricks

An informational picket was staged in front of the Bell Canada office in Midland, Saturday afternoon to protest plans to close the local Bell office by the end of 1983. Pickets from Midland and several other centres later in the day attended a social and dance at the Athenian Hall to drum up support for their cause. Local 40 of the Communication Workers of Canada inspired the picket.

They attended 1982 Conference for Baha'is

Nine persons from the Midland area participated in the 1982 International Conference of the Baha'i Faith, held Sept. 3 through 5 at the Olympic Velodrome in Montreal.

Mrs. Margaret Raynor of Midland and Mr. Doug Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron of Midland were part of a 20-voice choir that sang before more than 10,000 persons gathered at the conference.

Mr. Cameron is one of the Toronto-based choir's soloists. Mrs. Raynor also performed before about 1,000 Baha'i children at a separate International Conference held at the Pierre Charbonneau Centre, also in Montreal.

Mr. John Raynor was responsible for the installation of audio equipment for that conference.

Other area Baha'is attending the conference were Mr. and Mrs. Abbas Shehata and their son Akram, Mr. Sid Lethbridge and his daughter Sara, all of Midland, as well as Mrs. Isabel Leroux of Penetanguishene.

The Midland Baha'i community was recently happy to welcome a delegation of native Baha'is who were passing through town on the way to the Montreal conference.

The group had previously attended the Third Continental Indigenous Council held Aug. 12 through 15 at the Blood Reserve in Alberta.

The Baha'i Faith is an independent religion in its 139th year.

Among its principles are the independent men and women and the investigation of the essential oneness of truth, the equality of mankind.
