

Corn roast

by Mrs. F. Craig
The corn roast and barbecue sponsored by the Craighurst Women's Institute on Labour Day was well attended, in spite of the threatening weather. An added bonus was a ball game between Craighurst Sinton Bus Lines' girls and Hawkestone Shelswell Excavating. The final game in the series between Craighurst and Hawkestone girls was to be played in Craighurst Park on Sunday.

Your correspondent and her sister, Norene Stranaghan of Burlington, enjoyed renewing old acquaintances of high school days at the BCI reunion held at BDCI and the Continental Inn, Sept. 10-12.

St. John's ACW took charge of the service on Sept. 12. We were delighted to have as guest speaker Frances Lightbourn of Barrie. St. John's president, Coreen Tatton, looked after arrangements for the service. Soloist was Eva Tuersley, readers were Carol Crewe and Fay Craig, sidespersons were Joyce Sinton and Judy Williams, special prayers by Peggy Cathcart. Jean Boyd, Mrs.

Lightbourn's friend from Toronto, conducted the service.

Francis and Ross Shanahan attended the wedding of their nephew, Paul Shanahan, in Toronto on Sept. 6.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. John Dowd to the Knox Presbyterian Church parish. Mr. Dowd is a student who will be in charge of Hillsdale and Craighurst Presbyterian churches.

Three students (all Ontario Scholars) from this community are off to university. They are Stacey Duff who is studying languages at University of Western Ontario, and Rick Dunsmore and Bruce Fielding are at Waterloo in co-op electrical engineering.

A fez-full of fun

The staff and students of the T.M.R. Wing of Huron Park School in Midland were the beneficiaries last week of a generous donation from Midland Shriners. As part of the club's ongoing work with disabled children, a new wheel chair was presented
