

Memories made of this

Waubashene natives (the Moreau brothers) flank Rt. Rev. Alphonse Balanger who marked his 50th year as a priest during a special mass of thanksgiving, Sunday, at Sacred Heart Church in Port McNicoll. The Moreau brothers, both priests are first cousins of Msgr. Belanger.

Stiffer penalties for motorists drivers passing stopped school buses face fines

Ontario Transportation and Communications Minister James Snow reminds drivers stiffer penalties are now in effect for those who fail to stop for stationary school buses with red lights flashing.

"The law has been in effect for many years and has been well publicized," Snow added, "yet police and school bus operators advise us that some drivers are still failing to stop."

"Therefore, drivers who continue to fail to stop, are now liable for a fine of between $100 and $500 for a first offence and will be assessed six demerit points instead of four."

A subsequent offence within five years costs a driver a fine between $250 and $1,000, or imprisonment of up to six months, or both. This also carries the six demerit point penalty.
