

Miss Midland Fall Fair

Cindy York, walking through the midway at the Midland Fall Fair, was chosen Queen of the Fair last Friday evening from among a group of six young women. Fair Princesses are Sandy McCallum and Denise Martin.

When someone loses, they must be compensated. The Jewish people were compensated for what happened in the war, but it seems nobody cares about the other people who lost."

"The Palestinian must have a homeland. They must agree on conditions which will allow both countries to live in peace."

Elias is philosophical about his personal tragedy.

"When you have a strong faith in God and life, nothing will break you down," he says. "I bet you could find worse stories. People have lost their minds over this sort of thing. Not everyone has the strength to start again or the nerve to accept what has happened."
