

A pretty summer wedding held in Elmvale

A pretty summer wedding took place Aug. 14, 1982, at St. John's United Church, Elmvale, when Lori Clement, daughter of Larry and Mae Clement, became the bride of Marc Townes, son of Harold and Muriel Townes, all of Elmvale.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a gown of poly sheer with re-embroidered lace appliques adorning the empire waistline. A ruffle of chantilly type lace edged the V-neckline which featured a high collar of re-embroidered lace, and Bishop sleeves with tight lace cuffs. A single flounce of matching lace adorned the attached chapel train. A lace edged chapel length veil was held in place by a silk flower head piece. The bridal bouquet of silk salmon and white coloured roses with maybell, baby's breath, and ivy complementing the bridal ensemble. The matron of honour, Jane Lees, wore a blue polyester interlock halter gown with matching lace insert at the neckline and topped by an elbow length chiffon cape.

The bridesmaids, Brenda Fleming, Brenda Columbus, Karen Ritchie, and Linda Tinney, wore similar gowns in yellow. The flowergirl, Brenda Buchanan, wore a floor length gown of white embossed polyester sheer over blue interlock with short puff sleeves. All attendants carried silk flower arrangements to complement their gowns.

Mike Townes, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Steve Townes, Brent Fleming, Jim Clement and Dan Clement. The ring bearer, Tyler Turner, wore a Royal Blue tuxedo, as did the other men.

The bride's mother greeted guests in an aqua polyester interlock gown with a silk yellow rose corsage. The groom's mother assisted in a dusty rose floor length gown with a complementary silk flower corsage.

The bride and groom travelled to Niagara Falls and Baltimore, Maryland, and are now residing on Stone Street in Elmvale.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Coldwater, celebrates its 84th anniversary, Sunday, Oct. 17th, at 11 a.m.

The guest minister will be Rev. Paul Brown, A.B., M. Div., D. Min., of Knox Presbyterian Church, Midland.

He was educated at Penn State University and the University of Strasbourg, France, earning his Bachelor of Arts. He received his Master of Divinity degree from Gordon Divinity School, and later his Doctor of Ministry degree from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia.

Ordained by the Presbytery of Boston, Mr. Brown began his ministry in St. Edward's Presbyterian Church in Beauharnois, Quebec, and served for five years. He was for eight years Minister of Bethel Church, Scotsburn, Nova Scotia. He was inducted as Minister of Knox Church, Midland, last March.

The guest soloist will be Mrs. Suzanne Clarke, of Coldwater, and there will be special music by St. Andrew's Choir.

St. Andrew's Church, Coldwater, was built in 1898 and the first service was Jan. 1st, 1899. The beginnings of Presbyterianism in the district reached back for almost 50 years prior to that date.

Rev. Charles Carter, B.A., M. Div., has been Minister of St. Andrew's since 1951.

All who can attend have been extended a welcome to the service. There will be a Fellowship period in the Sunday School auditorium following the service

Wyevale Wedding of Wyevale residents

—by Jeanne Webb

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in Wyevale United Church, on Oct. 2 when Miss Rosalyn Hussey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hussey, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Reese Dunsford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art. Dunsford, all of Wyevale.

Rev. John Locke officiated at the wedding. A gorgeous Fall day added to the beauty of this happy event. The lovely reception and dance were held at the Royal Canadian Legion in Midland. Around 200 people were there to help celebrate the evening. Susan Brock caught the bride's bouquet and Dan Grenier the garter. Friends and relatives were there from Shelbourne, Toronto, Port Perry, North Bay, Sudbury and other areas. The happy couple are honeymooning in the Eastern States.

A community shower was held in the Orange Centre on Sept. 30. Miss Nancy Young of Toronto and Mr. Jerome Moreau of Wyevale were the happy recipients. Nancy and Jerome received many lovely and useful gifts. They were to be married on Oct. 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Grenier and Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Grenier flew to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan in mid-September to attend a wedding. Following the beautiful wedding celebrations, the two couples, plus another brother and his wife, motored to Banff, Alta., and on into B.C. They reported a wonderful trip.

Mrs. Margaret Martin enjoyed a couple of weeks with relatives in Manitoba, also attending a wedding while there.

We are pleased to hear that Jim Large is home after a week and a half in Penetanguishene General Hospital. He is feeling much better.

Mrs. Verna Nerpin spent a couple of days last week with friends near Churchill. The ladies of the United Church and the Men's Club were very busy last week preparing for that great annual event, the fowl supper, Oct. 9.

Wyevale Weight Whittlers have resumed their battle. They meet in the school on Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

The Pine Ridge Women's Institute's September meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Elwood Blow, Sept. 16., with 15 ladies present.

Roll Call was, Name a family tradition carried on by your family. The program was taken by Constable Murray Cooper, who gave a talk on drug abuse, accompanied by slides.

Lunch was served by the hostess and by Mrs. I. Campbell and Mrs. M. Marcellus.

Two fires, two calls for help

Midland firefighters were called out twice last Sunday to extinguish blazes.

At 4:54 p.m. they raced to the Pizza House in northwest Midland to quell a garbage bin fire then at 5:30 p.m. they extinguished a van fire in Tay Township.

Research to find causes and cures of arthritis is a top priority of The Arthritis Society. Modern treatment can check disability but it cannot eliminate the disease. The Arthritis Society asks your help to continue this vital research effort.
