

Defenses hold late-season lines

As the 1982 Penetang-Midland Touch Football League season turns into the home stretch, it looks like the defensive units of the top teams are getting even stronger.

Four of the games played on Sunday ended up in shutouts and the losers in the other two games only managed to score one touchdown each as the division races tightened up.

The Redskins, as usual, came up with their balanced attack, slamming Midnite Express 34-0.

The offense came up with all of the scoring but quarterback Andy Wicksted slipped into the defensive line up and came up with three interceptions as the Redskins extended their unbeaten streak to five games for this season after an undefeated season last year.

Nick Baker and Rick Buttineau each counted TDs for the Strikers as the blue shirts won their fifth of the year 12-0 over the Broncos a share of the league lead with the Redskins.

Huronian Optical ended up with a 26-0 blanking of the Hawks to grab second place in the standings. Frank and Maurice Pauze each scored majors while Bruce Sibble hauled in a punt and ran it back for a TD.

Ben Pauze counted another TD on a bit of a razzle-dazzle play, hauling in a 40-yard pass coming off a triple reverse from the Opticians' backfield.

The Renegades are the hard luck team this year as they suffered their fifth straight loss at the hands of the Guzzlers. Bob Diamond, Barry Nichol, Andy Messenger, Bob Hartz and Dan O'Hara all scored for the elbow benders as they slapped the Renegades 21-0.

The Cumming-Nicholson Stompers blasted

the Unknowns 38-6 in a major mismatch. Paul Chambers did most of the damage for the Stompers, scoring three majors, while Mike Dion picked off passes for a major and two two-point converts. Steve Freisen, Brian Jones and Steve Dunn all added to the Unknowns' miseries with additional points.

Mike McCallum scored the only points for the Unknowns.

Two 35-yard singles in the first half by Dean Anest proved to be just enough margin as the Raiders scored a slim 8-6 comeback win over the Brooklea Eagles.

The Raiders held a two-point edge at half time, but Don Meech gave the Eagles a 6-2 third-quarter advantage with a touchdown.

Brent 'Rocky' Gordon put the Raiders back into the lead but the Eagles weren't about to back off as the clock was running down in the final quarter.

The Eagles forced the Raiders into a third and ten situation, at the Raider 35, but a booming 70-yard punt by Anest sent the Eagles deep into their own zone.

Some over-exuberance on the part of the Eagles gave them four consecutive penalties and forced them back to their own 6-yard line as the clock ran out.
