

Big apple day for Scouts

by Harry Brown
Last weekend, Scouting asked your support for Scout activity on its annual "Apple Day" and we thank you very much. It was one of the finest days we have had. There were no apples left and the boys are thrilled.

And now a welcome to new leaders in the district. To Wyebridge, we are pleased to have Garnet Corbiere and Bonnie Reynolds. And to Wyevale, Doug Blow and Ray Sheekey were invested at the recent church parade. It's good to have you working with us all. A new Venturer Group is in full operation also at Wyevale. Grover Amos is the advisor.

Barbara Wiles was invested into leadership in the 6th Midland Group.

A Wood Badge, Part 1 Course is planned to help these new Leaders with their groups. More later.

Leadership still is needed...Scouts in Lafontaine need a leader in order to continue with their Scouting Career. Can you assist in any way? Another group has a different problem. They need a sponsor and a meeting place...Scouts of the North East Basin are present and with a leader.

You know: the word leader presents a worrisome sound to most people. They see it as one person making all the decisions when really you are part of a team with the group, the parents and the boys, working together. If you have any ideas about joining, call the group themselves or give the author a call at 526-9468. N.B. To all Scout and Venturer Leaders: Any Canoe or Boat activity must first be approved by the Water Safety Committee and have a leader in charge who has a Charge Certificate.

At present, there are six of these men in the District.

A canoe course will be offered in the Spring.

P.S: Reports from 6th Midland Cubs say they enjoyed their annual Sleep-in at the Pack Hall recently. All the Pack and a few friends (could these have been Teddy Bears?) had a fine camp, hike and meal(s).

And another late report: We wish congratulations to Doug Donald and his wife,

With Hallowe'en drawing near, the children who participate in 'Tyke Time' at the Midland YMCA every Tuesday and Thursday morning took the opportunity yesterday morning to celebrate in their own way, by having a Hallowe'en party. Everyone had a chance to show off the costumes they will be wearing. -Photo by Bob Murray

Scouts give a scare

The Fourth Midland Scout pack have been up to no good this week while brewing up chilling ideas for their haunted house. We're not going to give anything away, either: just stop by St. Paul's Church between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. today or tomorrow and prepare for the wicked worst.
