

Cents sent reeling

The Midland Centennials had "a complete breakdown everywhere" said manager Doug Fox as the Essa 80's delivered them a stunning 11-3 blow in Georgian Bay Junior C Hockey League action Tuesday in Angus.

It was the Centennials' third loss in a row.

Shawn Davy, John Webb and Brian Cadeau were the Midland goal-getters.

Goaltender Dwayne Latondress was returning to action after suffering a pulled groin muscle last week, and, considering the business he got from the Essa forwards - particularly in the second period -- it's fortunate for the Cents he didn't pull something again.

The club's other goaltender, Chris Lemieux, hurt his wrist Wednesday during a high school volleyball game, and two other Cents veterans, Ken Mugford and Paul Hahn, will be out of the picture completely nursing injuries when the club travels to Bracebridge tonight to meet the Bears.

The other local Georgian Bay entry, the Penetanguishene Kings, also have a couple of valuable crew members sidelined as they prepare to face the Stayner Siskins tonight at Penetanguishene Arena (8:30 p.m.)

Defenceman Gary Beausoleil suffered torn ligaments in his knee during an Ecole Secondaire Penetanguishene Secondary

School football game this week, and sharpshooter Blair McReynolds will be out after injuring his back last weekend against Huntsville.

After tonight both clubs will have a chance to recover with clear schedules until next Friday.

Mountain Bear hits the Big Smoke

Dunc Brownell hasn't been sporting this York Yeomen cap just to hide his new hairdo: the Midland native's athletic energies have come to rest of late at the Toronto university campus, where he's been playing football, studying physical education and, more recently, been looking to land a spot as a goaltender with the Yeomen hockey club. Brownell cracked the virtually uncrackable Yeomen football club's lineup as an outside linebacker this season -- upon which he received his overdue trim from one of the team's part-time barbers. The Yeomen didn't make the playoffs, but that hasn't fazed Brownell; to make the roster as a rookie points to a solid future, and Brownell says he'll be working hard for a spot again next season. Meanwhile, the former goaltender for the Midland Athletics and Barrie Flyers Intermediate A clubs will try for a place between the pipes for the upcoming Ontario universities hockey schedule.

Dock shocker

Brent Hamelin netted 30 points to power Penetanguishene Dock Lunch to a 66-64 victory over the Orillia CC Panthers last Thursday at Midland Secondary School.

It was the first victory for the Penetanguishene squad in three Simcoe County Intermediate Mens' Basketball League outings.

Hamelin's starring role was supported by Garrett Huvers, who contributed 10 points, and Doug Cavinross, Dave Hamilton and Ken Irvine, who chipped in six apiece.

The Dockers were down by two points at the half but managed to turn that around in the second half of the back-and-forth struggle.

Olympia strikes twice

Olympia Sports won a pair of games in last weekend's Midland Recreational Hockey League action at Midland Arena.

The Sports slammed the Barrelworks 11-3 in the league's Sunday contest and bounced back to chalk up a 5-1 decision over the Roadrunners the following day.

In other MRHL Monday night games, Hebner's Taxi blasted the Barrelworks 10-3 and Performance Motor Sports drew to a six-all tie with Duggans Polar Kings.
