

Gerard Moran for reeve of Flos

by GERARD MORAN
I have lived in Flos Township all my life except for three-and-a-half years during World War 2, two years of which was spent with the Royal Canadian Navy. I have operated a dairy farm on the second concession for the past 35 years, being a family farm since 1828. I am married and we have three children. My public life consists of:

—three years as a public school trustee
—five years as a separate school trustee
—12 years on Flos Township council —six years as

councillor and 2 years as deputy reeve
—four years as reeve
—Flos Township representative to the Nottawasaga Valley Conservation Authority, and Chairman of the area Advisory Board.
—four years on county council
—two years

agriculture and reforestation committee chairman of the Land Division Liaison Committee —Chairman of the warden's committee 1981
—Warden's committee 1982
—Chairman O.P.A. County exhibits 1981
—Special committees

extrication, JEPP
—Chairman of property and protection
—Chairman of the 60th Anniversary Committee of Reforestation
—a delegate with Warden Russell Cooper to receive proclamation from governor General Ed Schreyer proclaiming Simcoe County Forestry Capital of Canada in 1982.

—President of Flos Agriculture Society

For information or a ride to the polls do not hesitate to contact me at 322-1309. I look forward to serving as your reeve for the next three year term of office.

Anthony Lancia wants to sit on Twp. council

by ANTHONY LANCIA
There are approximately 16,000 persons eligible to vote for the three positions of councillor and one position of deputy-reeve in Tiny Township. A majority of these eligible voters are non-residents of Tiny Township who rarely exercise their right to vote, leaving the actual election of the council to the permanent residents of Tiny. You therefore have a very serious responsibility not only to yourself but also to the other residents of our township to vote for the candidate you truly believe will give you and your family the finest re-presentation possible.

I cannot stress the fact too strongly that according to statistics, only a small percentage of eligible voters actually go to the polls to cast their ballots during municipal elections.

injustice to the ratepayers of Tiny Township. I firmly believe in handling the affairs of the Township on a positive basis.

The environmental issues such as the landfill problem and the aerial crop spraying concern are just two matters that should be rectified as soon as possible after the new council has been elected.

The annexation bid by the present Midland council is opposed by this candidate. We can only hope that the members of the next Midland council will rescind their bid for our land and thereby spare the ever increasing costs and divisions occurring in our community.

We all have a right to voice our concern or suggest methods that will help our Township be an extension of ourselves. Please exercise this right and vote for the candidate who will listen and concern himself with the proper management of our community and who has the decisiveness needed to make and keep our township a truly fine and wonderful area to live.

Your support on Nov. 8 as your representative on the new Tiny Township council is sincerely appreciated.

BY DON HOCKEN
I am married with two children and I am retired from business. I am one of the larger taxpayers in Elmvale, and a member, and past president, of the Elmvale and District Lions Club. My experience as councillor:
—six years on village council. The first four years, as public works chairman, I oversaw the construction of Highway 27 south, and of a new public works building. Also the building and paving of the north back lane and parking lots; Set-up of a sidewalk program to renew sections of old sidewalk on a yearly basis; And the upgrading of village equipment. For the last two years I have been the chairman of Elmvale's own hydro system, which has been kept in good condition over the years, and one of the most economical utilities when compared to utilities in other villages of our size. Taxes in Elmvale have remained stable and our village is still going strong. I would like to see council keep the pay as we go policy.

I will work closely with the Chamber of Commerce to keep our business community strong, and with other committees for growth in the areas of housing, business and recreation. I would like to serve you for the next three years. Vote to re-elect Don Hocken. Ride to poll, telephone 322-2068.

Who were uniformed men?

by F. Craig
Judy Watson is busy with her campaign to win a seat on the Simcoe County School Board, representing Vespra-Essa. Several years ago she did a study of the teaching of English in our county schools. Last Tuesday was a day of great speculation to those of us who live within sight of the CP Rail tracks. For the greater part of the day squads of uniformed men patrolled up and down each side of the track. Had a CP Rail brakeman inadvertently dropped his gold watch? Were they looking for a vital piece of equipment that might have caused "The Great Medonte Train Wreck" last February, or was it a search for something even more sinister? Perhaps we will never know. Craighurst W.I. met at the home of Betty Veitch for the October meeting. Guest speakers were Mr. and Mrs. King of Perth, West Australia. Mr. King is teaching at Barrie Central for a year of exchange. He showed slides, and answered numerous questions to give us some idea of life and conditions in this large Australian State. One observation he made is that Canada and Australia are two of the luckiest countries in the world with regard to living conditions and resources. It was decided to proceed with the building of bleachers in our community park. Fraser Carr has kindly consented to see to the procuring of materials, and volunteer labour will be called for when the actual construction takes place. Bring Mental Health gifts to November meeting. Sarah and Susan Caspi of Newmarket are both in Toronto Sick Children's Hospital recovering from heart surgery. We hope their good progress continues. Caspi kept the general store in this community for a number of years before going to Newmarket. Jane Caspi and Judy Watson are twin sisters.
