

Taxi squad fares well

Hebner's Taxi more than doubled their goal output and kept up with the undefeated pace of Olympia Sports when they clobbered Performance Motor Sports 16-3 in Midland Recreational Hockey League action Sunday at Midland Arena.

In other MRHL play this week, Olympia swatted Top Hat Amusements 8-4, the Duggan Polar Kings slammed the Barrel Works 11-4 and the Roadrunners squeaked past the North Stars 4-3.

The Hebner's and Olympia victories were the fourth in as many starts for the co-league leaders. Hebner's 16 Sunday goals boosted their season total to 30, while Olympia stayed ahead with a 35 total after their eight-goal evening.

Despite their embarrassing loss—their first of the season—Performance managed to keep a grip on third place with two victories and a tie to their credit.

St. T's runners collect top team finishes

St. Theresa's High School of Midland managed to grab four fourth-place team finishes in six divisions of last week's Georgian Bay Secondary Schools Athletic Association Cross-country championships at Horseshoe Valley Ski Resort.

All three of the STHS boys' teams plus the girls' Junior team placed fourth in the 35-school event. The school's Senior girls' squad wound up in seventh place.

St. Theresa's fielded only three Midget girls—one short of the required team quota.

The school's top placing was earned by Kerry Heins, who led the STHS Senior boys' contingent with an eighth-place finish. The three other top Seniors were Kris Cote (17th), Drew Varley (32nd) and Jim Newton (34th).

Kevin Belcourt helped the Junior boys to their fourth-place effort with a 20th-place finish. Other Junior boys were Jim Madigan (25th), Brian Berriault (35th) and Mark Gieseler (37th).

Pat Marchand placed 13th in the Midget boys' section, followed by teammates Mike Piuato (21st), Robbie Fortin (29th) and Robbie Charlebois (71st).

Top Junior girl was Maureen Jaeger with an 18th-place finish, followed by Paula Denis (28th), Liz Bourgeois (39th), and Lisa Denis (42nd).

Polly Ann Howard came up with a 33rd-place finish in the Senior girls' division, Kelly Swales was 37th, Lana Zylich was 44th and Adrienne Brennan was right behind her in 45th.

The three Midget girls were Kim Asselin (37th), Rhonda Lalonde (70th) and Cheryl Jamieson (75th).

Keegos dive right on in

The Midland YMCA Keegos swam their first meet of the season this past weekend, playing host to Muskoka, Orillia, Owen Sound and Port Elgin.

The team was led by Seven First-Place Finishers. Anne Leavens (11 & 12 girls) swam to first place in the 100 breaststroke, and Polly Ann Hayward (15 & over girls) swam to first in the 100 butterfly.

The boys were led by strong showings by Joel Magnan, J. J. Gurman and Tim Bourrie. Joel Magnan (10 & under boys) placed first in the 100 breast, 100 free, and 200 I.M. J.J. (11 & 12 boys) placed first in all four of its events: 200 free, 100 back, 100 fly, and 100 I.M. Tim Bourrie (15 & over boys) won first-place honours in the 200 I.M. and 200 free.

Other first place finishers were Danny Whittam (11 & 12 boys 100 breast) and Andre Bourrie (15 & over boys 100 fly).

A number of swimmers improved their own personal best times, which after only six weeks of training is quite an accomplishment.

Improved performances were turned in by Melissa Cave, Genevieve Brusslers, Murielle Henry, Lise Magnan, Heather Cairns, Jason Perssell, Joel Magnan, Steve Maurice, Bryan Shouldice, Danny Whittam, Toben Jerry, Doug Cave, and Tim Bourrie.

The Keegos swim their next meet Nov. 14, in Bracebridge.

Nice day for a sit-down

These two young ladies, two of the hundreds of runners in last week's Georgian Bay Secondary Schools Athletic Association cross-country championships at the Horseshoe Valley Ski Resort, decided to wind up their long day of running around with a nice, relaxing sit-down on a Horseshoe hillside while their more anxious counterparts crowd around for a closer look at the proceedings. Thirty-five schools, including all five Huronia high schools, took part in the event.
