

Chris-mas came early for Atoms

Chris Bales and Chris Kinnear scored a goal and an assist a piece to pace the Midland Gervan, Jones and Davy Minor Atoms to a 4-0 thumping of their Penetanguishene rivals Tuesday night at Midland Arena.

Danny Reidel and Sean Lavin were the other Midland marksmen.

Chris Irvine held the Penetanguishene attackers at bay for the first two periods -- with help from a capable defensive crew -- and Dean Scott did a top-notch netminding job in the third period when the visitors applied even more pressure.

The Gervan, Jones and Davy crew will be off to Creemore tomorrow for another Georgian Bay Minor Hockey Association square-off.

Kings, Cents in for busy weekend

Both local entries in the Georgian Bay Junior C Hockey League are in store for busy weekends, with the Penetanguishene Kings up for three games through Monday night and the Midland Centennials in the spotlight twice.

Tonight, the Kings will host the south division-leading Essa 80's at 8:30 p.m. The Kings, in last place in the division with only two wins and a tie in nine starts, have had, ironically, a fine time in their dealings with the 80's, beating them once and tying them once in their two encounters.

The Kings (who, incidentally, lead the league in penalty minutes) will also be in action tomorrow night when they travel to Haliburton to meet the Huskies, and again on Monday, when they're on the road against the Stayner Siskins.

The Centennials (who, incidentally, led the league in penalties last season and finished out of the playoffs) will be travelling southward tonight to meet the Oro 77's man effort to pump their winning record up a little more.

Sunday, they'll be back at home again when they play host to the north division sack Haliburton Huskies. Game time is 7:30 p.m.
