$1,517 raised here for CNIB

Dear Editor:

The CNIB wishes to express its grateful appreciation to the residents of Elmvale and surrounding area for their generous response to its recent canvass for funds.

The proceeds amounted to $1,517. In addition, one very young citizen, eager to share, gave a penny and a treasured medallion, both of which have been forwarded to CNIB headquarters.

A special thank you is due the willing canvassers: M. Addison, F. Kirton, J. Currie, I. Doan, L. Eadie, T. Burtch, E. Spring, E. Frankcom, M. Cox, H. Greenan, D. Smith, J. Ritchie, M. Corbett, D. Palmer, D. French, I. O'Halloran, J. Flotron, I. Bertram, L. Whitton, L. Scott, B. Marley, C. McClelland, G. Robertson.

Yours respectfully,
Emily G. Finlay
Canvass Chairman

A white Christmas?

Old Man Winter made an unwelcome appearance here last Friday dumping three centimetres of wet snow on Midland-Penetanguishene. The snow, whipped up by high winds, at times made driving tricky.

A bomb because of the sound

The object taken from the Peoples Department Store last Thursday morning by town police, and so carefully handled by OPP bomb experts, is being considered as a bomb only because it went psssst when it detonated, Midland Police Chief Ernie Bates said.

The OPP bomb handling experts had to provide a detonator to explode the capped length of lead pipe. The pipe remained whole after detonation. The pipe may have been filled with gunpowder Chief Bates said.

Reeve won't run for warden

Flos Township Reeve Gerard Moran doesn't intend to stand for warden of Simcoe County in the coming year, he said yesterday.

Reeve Ross Whiteside of Essa Township will be running, Moran said. Reeve Art Stewart of Penetanguishene, returned Monday as reeve, announced months ago that he would try to be the first warden from Penetanguishene in many years.

During the Flos Township candidates meeting, Councillor Don Bertram, also returned Monday, said he was not running for reeve because he knew from Moran that Moran had been approached to run for warden of the county. Bertram said he wouldn't run for deputy-reeve and force Deputy-reeve Don Bell, who was acclaimed, to run for reeve.
