

On parade

Howard Henderson of Midland Legion Branch 80 was one of scores of men and women who paraded to Knox Church, Sunday, for an annual Remembrance Day Church Service. Remember, tomorrow is Remembrance Day...Lest We Forget.

BIA pick new top brass

An estimated 75 members of the Midland Business Improvement Association attended last night's annual meeting of the BIA at the Budd Watson Gallery.

During the course of the evening, they picked their eight-member slate of officers, who will take over guiding the BIA on Jan. 1.

Two of this year's BIA executive members, the only two to stand for office again, were re-elected to serve the BIA again.

Doug Parker and Tom Borsa were two of eight men and women picked by their peers.

The other six picked last night were: Art Crawford, Joell Voorzanger, Sharon Park, Bob Bennett, Sharon Edwards and Bill Clark.

At press time, the eight-member board of the BIA was in the process of holding an executive meeting to pick officers for the next term. It is understood half of the board will serve for two years, while the other half will serve for one, so as to maintain continuity. A total of 13 people were nominated to fill the eight positions.

Comrades remember

Tomorrow is Remembrance Day. Last Sunday, members of Midland Legion Branch 80 held their annual Remembrance Day Parade to Knox Presbyterian Church. The Legion's Pipes and Drums headed up the parade which it will again do tomorrow for the 11 a.m. service at the King Street Cenotaph.

$163,167 grant aids county

Further acquisition and development of the Utopia Conservation Area, located approximately 16 km west of Barrie in the central part of Simcoe County, will be assisted by an Ontario grant of $163,167.

In approving this project, Natural Resources Minister Alan Pope said that the recently approved master plan for this area will ensure that the goals of the Nottawasaga Valley Conservation Authority to conserve important valleylands along the Bear Creek and to provide low-intensity recreational opportunities for the residents of Simcoe County will be achieved.

Included in the Conservation Authority's long-range plan is the development of nature trails, improved picnicking and camping facilities, changeroom for swimmers, and erosion control works to reduce sedimentation and improve water quality. Also identified in the plan is the possible future acquisition of approximately 64 acres of additional valleyland, if and when such properties are offered for sale on the open market.

The approved master plan will be implemented over a period of approximately 20 years, as funding permits, at a total estimated cost of $315,500.
