

October wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John Bourgeois are pleased to announce the marriage of their eldest daughter Michelle to David Mink, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Ernest Mink. The wedding took place on Saturday Oct. 16, 1982 at St. Margaret's Parish. The couple is residing in Midland.

September nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. K.R. Sangster of Midland are pleased to announce the marriage of their son Robert Scott to Ann Marie Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Doran of Belleville on Sept. 18 / 82 at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Belleville. The double-ring ceremony was officiated by Father W.A. Dwyre with Matron of Honor

Diane Andre and best man Steven Dunn. Also assisted by Bridesmaids Carolyn Doran, Cindy Wilson and Karen Sangster and ushers being John Doran, Alan Sangster and Ernest Valcheff.

Following a honeymoon to points east the couple is now residing in Toronto.

Hobart—Smith present at service

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. David Russell whose wedding nuptials were solemnized recently. The bride hails from Halifax, Nova Scotia, where the marriage vows were exchanged. A long, happy voyage on the sea of life together is wished them.

Friends were sorry to learn Mrs. Austin Moran had the misfortune to break a hip in a fall at her Toronto home a week ago. She is a patient at St. Michael's Hospital.

Hillsdale

by MRS. R. LEA
Several people from here have attended the Royal Winter Fair last week.

Lorne Tinney is home and feeling better after spending a few days in Penetanguishene General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rumble enjoyed a trip to Calgary and Blind Bay, B.C.

Larry Drennan, Ottawa, spent a few days last week with his parents.

Last Monday was a very quiet election day, not many people from

Some few days before her accident she was rushed from her home in the city by ambulance suffering from severe pain in her back. She and her husband had just returned home from their House on the Hill when she was afflicted. All hope she is suffering less and that her convalescence will not be long.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Butt drove up from the city to attend to their property on the corner and exercise their franchise. They were confined to their home in the city for a few days with the flu just prior to then, but are both well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clarke, of Orillia, visited at Deepdale Farm on a recent Sunday afternoon, also Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnstone, R.R. 2, Orillia, spent an evening recently visiting the Barrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Smith and sons attended the special Remembrance Service at the Anglican Church on Nov. 7, along with other leaders, scouts, cubs and beavers, as well as the Remembrance Day Service at the cenotaph in Coldwater on Nov. 11. The ladies of the Legion served hot-dogs, cookies etc. to the boys and their leaders, following the latter, in appreciation of their participation in the service. It was much appreciated.

The return to earth of the gigantic balloon on Monday late afternoon created much excitement in the neighbourhood. Understandably it was a bitter disappointment to Mr. Maxie Anderson and Mr. Don Ida but at least they are safe and sound and that is the main thing. Oh Boy!

Sorry to learn Mr. Sidney Clarke is in the intensive care unit at Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, Orillia. He was taken ill Monday night, Nov. 8. Hurry and get well.
