

'Christmas Faire' at MHC

Are you looking for that extra-special Christmas gift? Do you have one person who is always a problem to buy for at Christmas?

If so, you may find the solution to your problem at the Christmas Faire being put on by the Volunteer Association of the Mental Health Centre in Penetanguishene.

The Christmas Faire will be held tomorrow, Dec. 2 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Volunteer Friendship Centre. The Friendship Centre is located in House 6 on the Mental Health Centre grounds.

There will be lots of stocking stuffers, gift items, and bake sale items available, as well as free coffee all day. (That's right, free!)

Lunch will be served, consisting of sandwich or salad plates and cookies. Lunch time will be 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. and cost is only $1.50.

Come out and browse, shop, or just visit the boutique.

Did You Know

Victorian Christmas

A Victorian Christmas will be held on the afternoon of Dec. 12 at the Simcoe County Museum. As in past years, the St. Giles Choir will sing carols, the Orillia Recorder Group will play Christmas music, and the Orillia Presbyterian Church Bell Choir will perform familiar carols on hand bells.

The bell choir will perform once, at 3 p.m.

Painting With Light, featuring the works of Jack Turner and Neal Livingston, a National Film Board Exhibition, is on display at the museum until the end of this month.

Warden to be elected

The warden of Simcoe County for 1983 will be elected during the inaugural meeting of Simcoe County council, on Dec. 14, in Midhurst.

The 141st inaugural meeting of county council will start at 1 p.m.

The new council of Elmvale, and of Flos Township, will be sworn next Monday. Medonte Township's council will be sworn on Dec. 13.

Holstein Club meeting today

Members of the Simcoe County Holstein Club are having their annual meeting in the Churchill Community Hall, on Highway 11 south of Stroud, today.

Max Spence of RR 3, Elmvale, paid the top price of $4,300 for an animal during the recent Simcoe County Club sale in Guelph. Thirty-five head averaging $1,544 were sold.

Elmvale scene in calendar

A Tribute to Yesteryears is the theme of the new 1983 Simcoe County calendar. Each month features 50-, 80-, and 100-year-old photos and postcards showing scenes of the area. Elmvale is represented by a view in 1911 of the Wye River. Daylight Savings Time and the start of the four seasons are also marked on the calendar.

The 1983 Simcoe County Calendar on sale at the Gala Gift Shop, and at the Pascoe Studio.

An experience Morris could have done without

by DOUG REED

WE WERE PLEASED to hear, Reeve Morris Darby of Tiny Township wasn't more seriously injured after being robbed and beaten in Toronto last week.

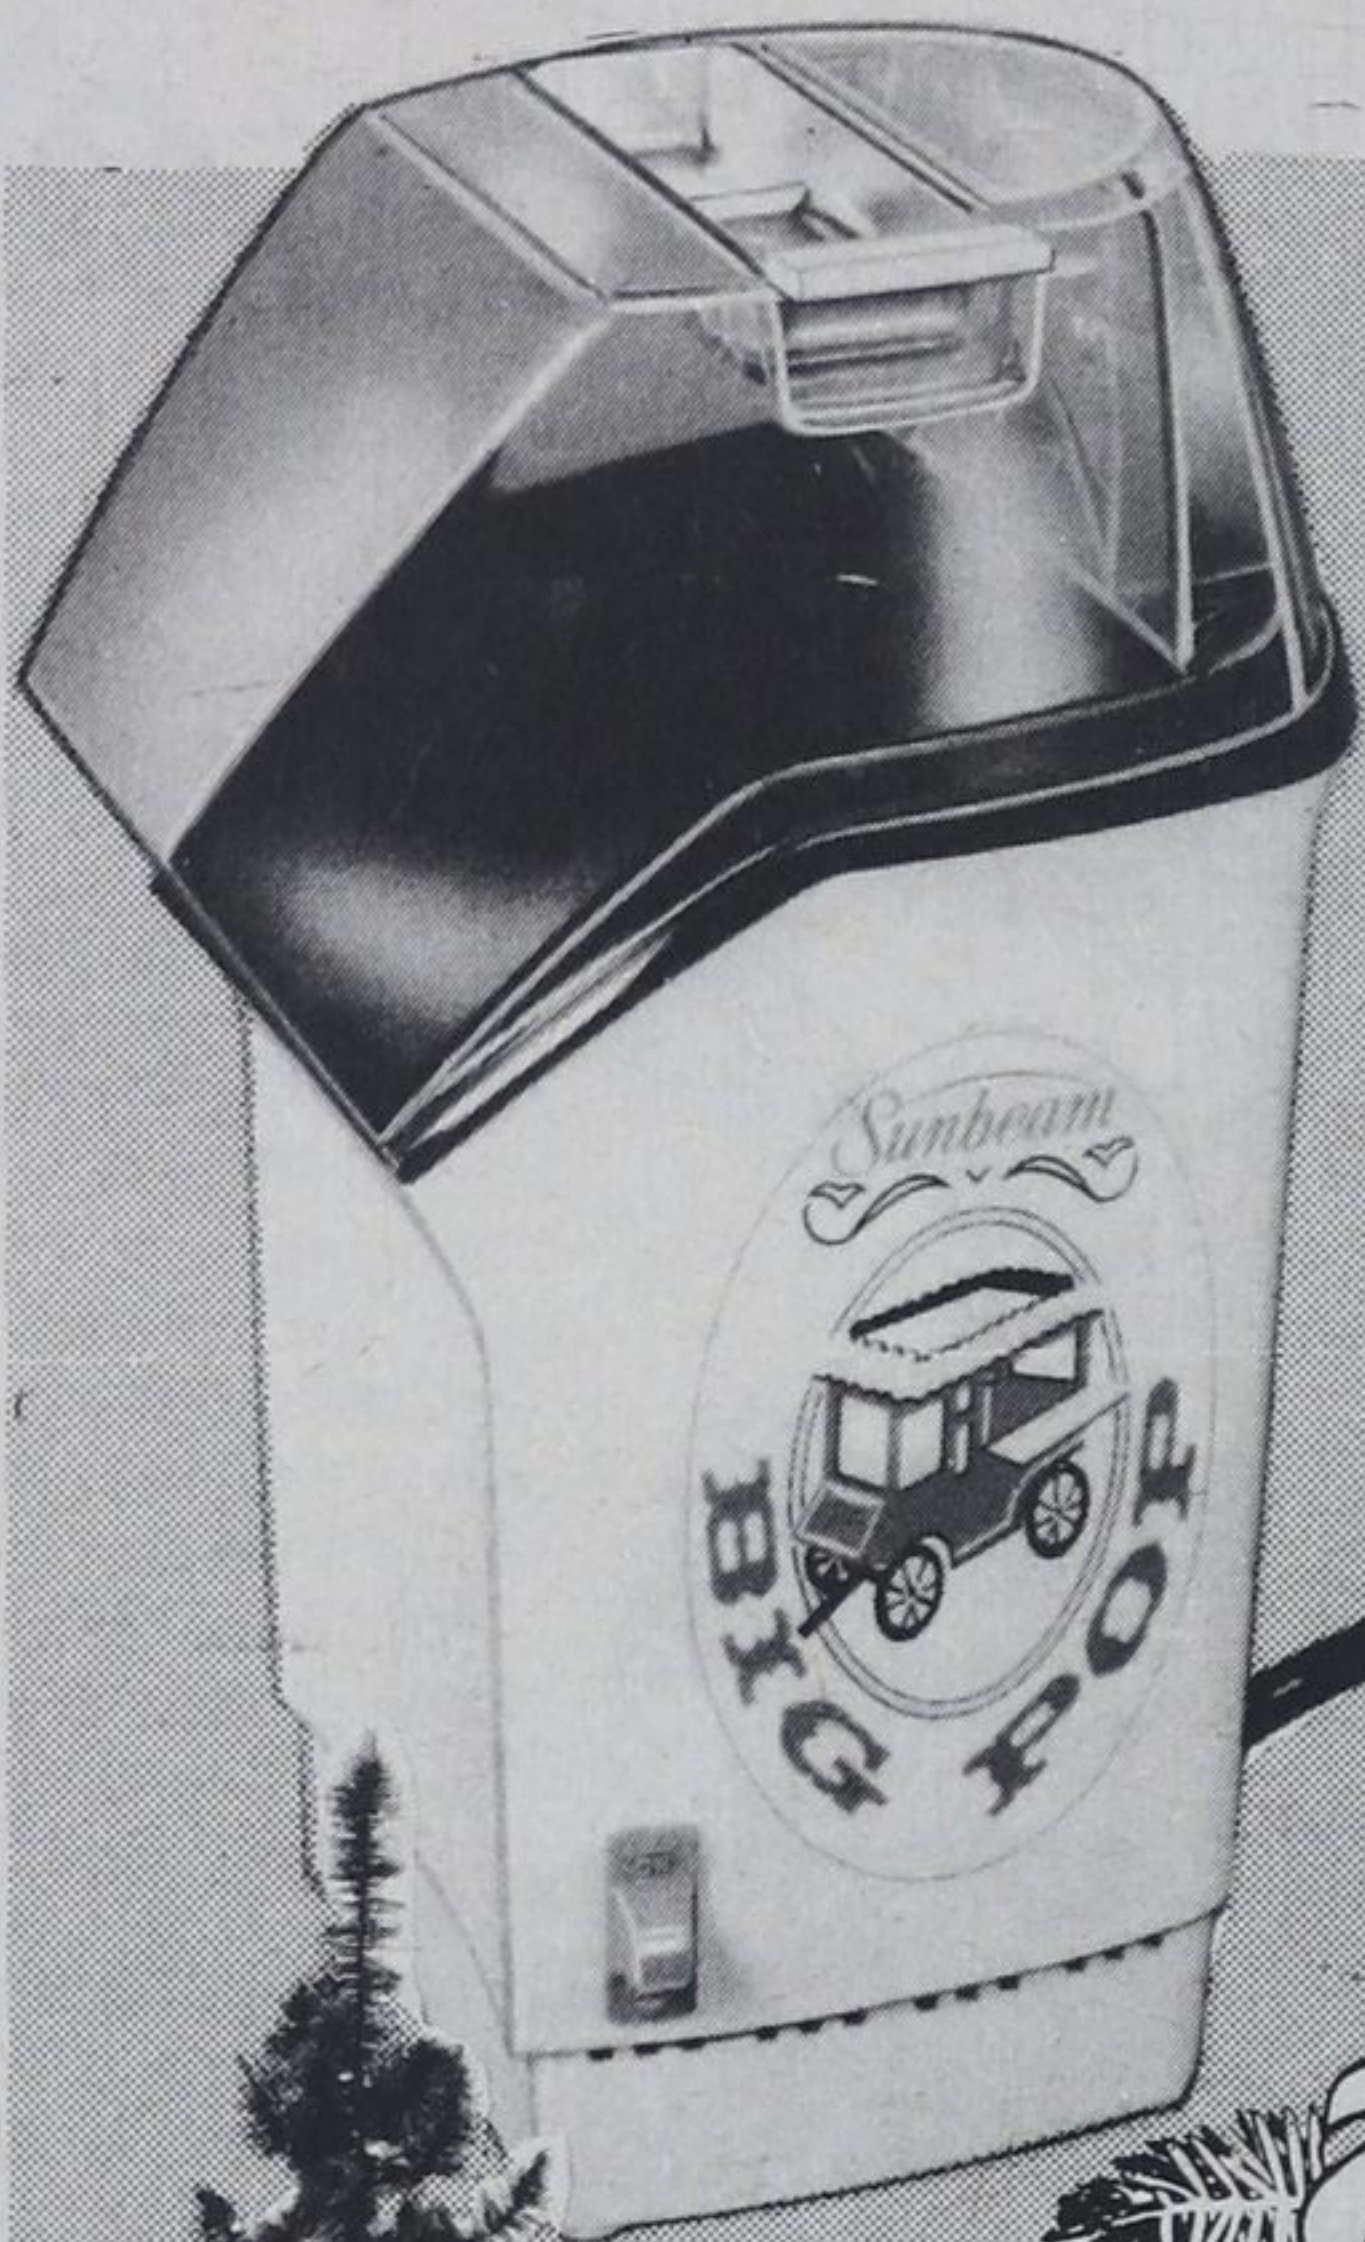

Darby, a former warden of Simcoe County, was in Metro attending an AMO (Association of Municipalities of Ontario) convention.

The township reeve was rushed to hospital suffering an eye injury, however we are pleased to report his injuries weren't more extensive.

Beating and robbing any person is the ultimate insult a handful of goons can inflict on their peers. We can all do without this deviant behavior.
