

BP peewees finally lose, after tie Sat.

Penetanguishene Little Lake BP peewees tied on Saturday, but saw their five-game unbeaten streak come to an end on Sunday against Meaford. Saturday in Owen Sound, Little Lake goalie, Shane Ronald stopped 30 shots in backstopping the team to a 2-2 tie.

Charles Bottineau and Don Monteith scored the goals.

Sunday, coach Larry Banks' team lost a heart stopper 6-5 to the visitors from Meaford.

BP'ers trailed the whole game, and had trouble with their motivation. Meaford had just beaten Midland a couple of hours earlier, and Penetanguishene mistook them for a soft touch. Even pulling the goalie in the last 20 seconds couldn't salvage a point.

Shawn Desroches led the scorers with two goals, while Monteith, Rob LeClair and Jason Sajan notched singletons.

Next competition for the Penetanguishene Little Lake BP peewees is this Saturday in Owen Sound, and then Sunday at home against Collingwood.
