

SCOUTING AROUND

by Harry Brown

So now, the Christmas Concerts and parties are all over and all that is left is to squeeze the parcels around the tree. A few more days and His birthday will be here.

Let Peace and Love fill your hearts and may you have a great New Year.

Come to think of it, weren't those Christmas Concerts something else? Did you ever believe that your boy could do as good a job as that in Acting, singing, Set design and whatever?

There and there alone is the proof of the success of the dedicated volunteer leader who gives to your son the desire and the training to be GREAT.

When I think of the hours spent by these men and women who lead the Packs and Beaver Colonies and the men who provide the inspiration for the Troops, Companies and Crews, my hat comes off to all of them for their inspiration and care.

So now it's getting ready for the coming events, the camps, the hikes, the Kub Kar rally, and of course, the World Jamboree.

So its congratulations to all of you. May your every plan work as you hope it will, and to the parents. Don't feel that this is a venture just for your son. You are welcome to add your help too.

If you have a talent or Hobby that you think might help the boys, call the leader, and arrange a night. A little help is often very much appreciated, especially if the Leader knows in advance so he or she can plan a meeting around that help.

Preparation for

Winterama begins anew

Three representatives of Penetanguishene's Rotary Club, and of the French Centre, attended the first Winterama meeting, last Thursday.

The Penetanguishene Chamber of Commerce is interested in sharing the work of running the annual February event with local groups and individuals. The club and the French Centre were the only groups to attend the meeting. The two groups will be in touch about their intentions with the chamber.

Winterama is scheduled for the weekend of Feb. 19.
