

MSS cagers playing a very full schedule

MSS Marauders boys basketball teams have been a busy bunch lately. Friday, all three teams hosted ESPSS at the Hugel Avenue gym, and took two of the three contests.

MSS midgets won 49-35 led by Brad Price's eight points and six each from Craig Flint, Kevin Gray and Eddie Richardson.

Junior Marauders topped ESPSS by 11 points, as Chester Graham's team won 52-41 behind 16 points from Jeff Bales and 13 and 12 points from Bill Richardson and Kevin Thomas respectively.

Darryl Burns and Sloan Campbell netted 10 each and Todd Gray had six, but it wasn't enough as the Seniors lost to Penetanguishene 50-39.

Monday saw the midget and senior

Marauders travel to Orillia to take on Twin Lakes Secondary School. MSS came away with a pair of victories this time.

Dennis Hearn's midgets thumped the hosts by 65-36 as Steve Kay had 11 points and Ed Richardson nine. Brad Price and Mark Mielke each chipped in eight.

Coach Jeff Attwood's seniors won over Twin Lakes by the score of 42-26 in a tight defensive match up.

Darryl Burns had 13 points in this game. Todd Gray had eight and Sloan Campbell picked up six.

Midland Secondary School Marauders basketball teams next hit the boards on Jan. 4 at the MSS gym when they play Elmvale at 2:15 p.m.

Moreau Juveniles busy and successful

by Arnold Poster
Coach Brian Swan and his Moreau Farm Equipment Juvenile hockey team were kept fairly busy the past week.

On Dec. 17 at the Elmvale Arena, the local boys defeated Owen Sound 8-4. Elmvale played a close-checking game, highlighted by some hard skating. They opened up a 4-1 lead in the first period on goals by Sandy Clarke, Randy Greenlaw, Brad Young and Ken Graham. Mark Borland replied for Owen Sound.

Elmvale scored the only goals of the second period on tallies by Brad Young and Dan Whitton.

Owen Sound out-scored Elmvale in the third period. Terry Moore, John Gallen and David Stranks scored for the Sound, while Dan Whitton and Sandy Clark scored for Elmvale.

The boys journeyed to Keswick on the weekend to play in the Keswick Silver Stick Tournament.

On Saturday night, Elmvale played Oshawa to 5-5 tie with Kenny Graham the big gun for Elmvale. He scored all five goals. They followed this with a close 4-3 loss to Pelham on Sunday Dec. 19. Kevin Swan, Dean Robertson and Brad Young were the marksmen for Elmvale.

In their final game, Elmvale Moreau Farm Equipment juveniles scored a thrilling 2-1 win over Sutton. Dan Whitton and Ken Graham scored the goals.

This allowed the local boys with a win, a tie, and a loss to advance to the semi-finals to be played on Monday Dec. 20. As we went to press no results were available.
