Penetanguishene Kings host Midland Centennials at the Penetanguishene Arena this Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. in Georgian Bay Junior C League action.

Remember to plan to attend the Alumni basketball night at MSS on Jan. 29, starting at 6:30 p.m. Whether you played for the school team or not, come on out and enjoy watching or playing. If you wish to get involved contact Chester Graham at the school by calling 526-2274 or at home at 526-6104.

Be sure to get up to the Centennial Arena next week to take in some of the great hockey action at the annual Silver Stick hockey tourney. Opening ceremonies take place just before 9 a.m. on Monday morning. Penetanguishene and Barrie face off in an Atom division game to start the tournament.

From The Times' sports department, a fond wish of a Merry Christmas and Joyous New Year to all good sports in Huronia. May all your home teams be winners!

Up, up, and away! MSS midget player loses jump ball to Barrie North

Bringing it home!

Penetanguishene Curling Club. Trophy is awarded to the winner of the first draw of the schedule. Moreau's rink topped Annette St. Amant's rink 12-7 in the final game.

Kings tie Oro

by Ron Johnson

"How quickly the tide can turn." That was coach Ron Marchildon's reaction to Penetanguishene Kings' 4-4 tie with Oro 77's in Oro on Wednesday night.

Kings played well enough to win, outshooting their hosts by a 2-1 ratio, but just couldn't seem to find the net. They were also victimized by the post brothers, left and right, on a couple of occasions.

States Marchildon, "It just seems that things have begun to swing the other way for us now. We had things (momentum) going in our direction for 12 games, and now it appears to be against us."

Carl Cowan returned to Kings' lineup for the first time this season for Wednesday's game and scored his first Junior C goal of the year. Cowan will also see action against Midland this Sunday afternoon when Centennials invade Penetanguishene Arena for a 3:30 p.m. affair.

Cowan's role on the team is underlined by the coach.

"What Carl does best is put the puck in the net, and that's what we're asking him to do. The rest of his game is not his strong suit anyway."

Other goal scorers for Kings were John Monague, Calvin Sine, and Brian McReynolds. There could easily have been more goals were it not for the sometimes unconscious work by the Oro netminder.

Royalties...Marchildon stresses the fact that any of the top four teams in the south division can beat any other contender...He points to Midland's win over Essa, after Kings had been beaten rather badly by the 80's on Sunday, to illustrate his point...whichever team gets hot at the end will grab first place...Dave Robillard sat out Wednesday's game but will return for the Midland game...Greg St. Amant has one more game to go on his suspension...Kings report no major injuries, and will probably be back to their normal selves in the next couple of games...it will be interesting to see how the team as a unit responds to the presence of Cowan, and how they accept his temporary appearance.

Hockey Trivia

(Answers on Page 18)

Where sporting events take place is often as important as what is achieved in the event itself. This week's quiz deals with either buildings or sites of major sporting events or regular sports occurrences.

1. Where do Wayne Gretzky and the Edmonton Oilers play their home games?

2. The 1960 USA Olympic hockey team won the gold medal at the Winter Olympics. Where was the event held?

3. The old arena in San Francisco is famous as much for its name as for any events held there. What was its name?

4. What was the name of the ice rink in Midland before the current Centennial Arena?

5. What are the names of the arenas where these teams play home games? Quebec Nordiques? Los Angeles Kings? Washington Capitals?

6. Where did Wayne Gretzky score goal number 77 last season? That was the goal which broke Phil Esposito's scoring record for a season.

7. Canada's national junior hockey team won the World Junior Hockey Championship last year. Where were they when they won it?

8. In what city do the New Jersey Devils play their home games?

9. Where do the Detroit Red Wings play their home games? Name the city and the arena. Where were these games previously played?

10. Where does the McMaster Marlins hockey team play its home games? This is so no one gets a perfect score except Mac alumnae!

That's a possible 14 points. Good luck and happy holidays!
