

Ogilvie questions procedures

Tiny Township taxpayer William Ogilvie attended Wednesday's meeting of Tiny Township council to complain about the manner in which the township sold certain municipal lands earlier this year.

Ogilvie questioned Tiny's "propriety" of procedure. None of the law-makers present commented at the conclusion of Ogilvie's one-man deputation other than to thank him.

Yesterday, Tiny's Administrator Guy Maurice, noted the lands in question were assembled over the past two years after they were deemed "surplus."

Maurice said the manner of conducting the sales fell within the jurisdiction of Section 195 of the Ontario Municipal Act.

'Christmas in Elmvale' winner
