

Kings split pair of games with Stayner: both win on the road

Penetanguishene Kings gained some measure of revenge Monday night in Stayner, as they downed the home town Siskins 3-2, after dropping a one-sided 8-2 decision last Friday in Penetanguishene to the same team.

Monday's close encounter was a penalty-filled affair with Kings on the receiving end of many dubious decisions by the officials. Kings spent almost half the game playing shorthanded, but managed to hold on to steal the win from their hosts.

Goals for Kings were scored by Carl Cowan, John Monague, and Greg St. Amant, with St. Amant getting the winner with about eight minutes left.

Last Friday saw the Kings hold a 2-1 lead after the opening frame, behind a 28 shot barrage on Siskin netminder Joe Ralph. Dave Robillard and newcomer Dale Denis scored the goals.

After the first period it was all downhill. Stayner netted seven unanswered goals to win easily.

Their domination is reflected in the final shots on net statistics, as they ended up on top of a 48-47 count.

The split with Stayner leaves the Kings in third place in the southern division of the Georgian Bay Junior C League. They can take another step towards the top this Friday, as they host first-place Essa at Penetanguishene Arena at 8:30 p.m.

Juveniles trim Meaford 9-4

Midland Juveniles posted an easy 9-4 triumph over the visiting Meaford juveniles at Centennial Arena on Tuesday night.

After trailing 2-1 at the end of the first period of the clean well-played affair, Midland potted four goals in the middle frame and led 5-4.

Midland scored four more goals in the last period to salt the decision away.

Leading the scoring parade was Drew Varley, who got himself a hat trick, and Steve Charlebois, who scored twice. Singles went to midget Tom Hook, Mac Spears, Tom Nicholson, and Keith Moreau.

Four players who did yeoman service, and usually get overlooked unless they score, managed to notch an assist each. These players are Pete Wright, Pat Abram, Owen Quilty, another midget-aged player, and Mark King.

Next action for the Midland Juvenile hockey team is next Tuesday, Jan. 11 at 8 p.m., when they are home to Creemore.

Girls' volleyball tourney tomorrow

Midland will be invaded by volleyball-playing females tomorrow. MSS and St. Theresa's High School will be the sites for the Midland Volleyball Club's Girl's High School Invitational Tournament.

There will be 24 teams representing these schools: Orillia Park Street, Barrie Eastview, Stayner, Barrie Innisdale, Brock, Sacred Heart, St. Robert's, Banting, Barrie St. Joe's, MSS, and St. Theresa's.

The midget competition will take place at St. Theresa's with eight teams going for the title. Championship is slated for 2 p.m.

Junior and senior action is at MSS with the finals set for 5 p.m.

Action begins on all fronts at 8:30 a.m.

The event is a joint effort of the Midland Volleyball club, MSS and St. Theresa's. Come out and see some top-flight exhibitions of volleyball.

Follow the ball...

The action was hot and heavy this week during a senior basketball game between MSS and EDHS at the Hugel Avenue high school in Midland. MSS seniors won this game 74-34.

National Ski Week coming up

Winter fast approaches, and Canada's ski industry will again offer special incentives to encourage more Canadians to try downhill and cross-country skiing during National Ski Week, Jan 22-30, 1983.

Under the guidance of the Canadian Ski Council, the entire ski industry has joined forces this year to convince the population that winter is a season to be enjoyed - not to escape from!

Many resorts and areas will offer "50 percent off" package deals (by advanced reservation) including equipment rental, lift or trail tickets and lessons, in the belief that once beginners make first tracks, they'll be hooked for life on skiing and winter!

Retailers across the country will be offering equipment opportunities for beginners during the Jan. 22-30 period.

"Not only is skiing healthy, it's fantastic FUN," exclaims the Council's Executive Director Judith Hunter. "Four-and-a-half-million Canadians can't be wrong - they enjoyed winter and skiing last year. And there's plenty of room for lots more people to get out there on the slopes and trails. Skiing is a sport for everyone - seniors (look at Jackrabbit and 108), middleaged and young to tiny tots - including disabled folks as well.

Jr. C All-Stars in Bracebridge tomorrow

Football Follies Trivia Quiz

(Answers on Page 10)

If you are a real football fan, you must have watched at least a dozen games over the New Year's weekend. Let's see if you were watching or were just overdosed on "Pigs-kinitis". Maybe New Year's Eve fogged some things too!

- Let's start with the "Bowl Games". Who won the Sugar Bowl? Who lost it?
- Where are the following bowl games played?
(a) Cotton Bowl. Georgia
(b) Rose Bowl. Penn State
(c) Fiesta Bowl. Nebraska
- Match these players with their teams.
Todd Blackledge SMU
Hugh McIlhenny Penn State
Turner Gill Nebraska
Herschel Walker SMU
- Who is Joe Paterno?
- What do the initials SMU stand for? How about UCLA?
- Now let's see if you were paying attention to the NFL action. Which two teams had the best won-lost records (8-1) in the "regular" season?
- Which Buffalo player publicly asked to be traded after the Bills' loss to New England on Sunday?
- Name five NFL teams which didn't, repeat did not, make the playoffs. (Baltimore and Houston don't count - too easy!)
- Name the one NFL division to send only one team to the playoffs.
- Who quarterbacked the L.A. Rams to their upset win over the San Francisco 49'ers? That makes a total of 22 possible - subtract five for your hangover!
