

Bantam B's lose 4-3

by ARNOLD POSTER
Elmvale Bantam B's lost a close 4-3 decision to Coldwater last Sunday at the Floss-Elmvale Arena.
Coldwater opened up a 2-0 lead by the end of the first period, and made it 3-0 by the middle of the second, before Elmvale could get untracked.
Jody Hankin played forward instead of goal, and scored Elmvale's first goal assisted by Ken Hubbard.

The third period was very fast, with end to end rushes, and both goaltenders made some excellent saves. With Coldwater leading 4-2 in the third, Russell Lauzon from Larry Amos and Allen Gilbert made it close.

When I first saw the two teams, I thought I was watching juniors - some of these boys are really big!
