

Oldtimers silence the Sound

Midland Oldtimers' hockey team was at it again last Sunday morning when they took on Parry Sound at Centennial Arena.

Parry Sound is coached by ex-Midland Oldtimer Jim Tumber. Midland was less than hospitable, as they thrashed the visitors 9-4.

Midland led the whole way, as they built leads of 2-0 and 5-2 at the intermissions.

Leading the scoring parade were Keith Bath, Bill Gray, and Harvey Benoit, each with a pair of goals. Dennis Lemieux, John Weber, and George Dunn scored one each. Gray and Lemieux both tacked on a pair of helpers and Billy Knibbs had three assists.

There were also two assists credited to Harvey Benoit, but the score sheet appeared to be tampered with.

Gals sweep series

On Tuesday, MSS girls volleyball teams travelled to Orillia to play in a three team mini-tournament with the host school, Park Street Collegiate, and Elmvale.

All three squads, midget, junior, and senior, swept to victory. Midgets whipped Elmvale 15-8, 15-8 and dropped Park Street in two of three games by the scores of 15-12, 10-15, and 15-3.

The season record for the midgets now stands at three wins and one loss.

The junior Marauders breezed through Elmvale and Orillia without losing a game to bring their league record to 3-1 and their overall season mark to 9-1.

MSS whipped Elmvale 15-7, 15-5 and then disposed of Park Street 15-5, 15-13 to take the

Hockey Trivia Quiz

(Answers on Page 10)

Back to hockey this week, and I'll give you a break. It's based completely on this week's NHL statistics, those little nuggets of trivia gold. What would the game be without stats?

1. Who is the NHL's leading goal scorer, as of Monday?
2. Everyone knows who has the most points in the scoring race, but who is second, albeit a distant one?
3. What NHL player has the best plus-minus rating in the league? (Plus-minus is the net difference of goals scored for and against a team while a player is on the ice - in simple terms anyway)
4. Which team is first overall in the NHL standings?

5. Which goaltender has the best goals-against average, and the most wins?
6. Who is the NHL's highest scoring defenceman?
7. Just for fun, who has the worst plus-minus figure?
8. Which goalie has the most assists this season?
9. Which team has the most players with at least 10 goals? 20 goals?
10. Which player has the most penalty minutes so far this year? Only 11 points this time, so nine should be easy!
