

Atoms show skill

Penetanguishene Summer's Trophy Atoms kept a busy schedule last weekend. Although they lost two of the three games they played, coach Gary St. Croix and manager Gary Ronald are pleased with the team's progress to this point in the season.

Last Thursday in Elmvalle, Penetanguishene nipped the home team 6-4, as Mark Piotrowski picked up three points and Greg Playne and Paul Watson had two each. Chipping in one scoring point each were Mike Argue, Derek Lotton, Roy Munday, and Jacob Irving.

In the return match held Sunday Jan. 9 in Penetanguishene, Elmvalle reversed the decision by scoring a 5-4 win. Chris Marchildon, Chris Vallee, Playne, Lotton, Munday, and Watson all scored one point for the losers.

Both of these exhibition games were highlighted by fast, entertaining hockey.

In between these two games, Penetanguishene Summer's Trophy atoms managed to squeeze in a league game with the powerful Collingwood squad. In three previous outings against Collingwood, the local boys and never been closer than eight goals.

When this one ended with Collingwood posting a 5-1 win, it was termed a moral victory for Penetanguishene. Roy Munday and Jeremy Legault notched the scoring points in the game for the losers.

Atoms next take to the ice this Sunday in a tournament in Schomberg, starting at 1:15 p.m. They return to Schomberg next Saturday to continue the action.

Legion whips Sound 6-1

Midland Legion midgets hockey team, bouyed by the new prospect of going to the Silver Stick tournament, defeated Owen Sound at Centennial Ice Palace Wednesday night by a score of 6-1.

Midland led throughout the contest, holding leads of 1-0 and 4-0 at the intermissions.

Goalender Peter Newburn lost his bid for a shutout with about three and a half minutes left in the last period.

Owen Quilty and Tom Hook were the top snipers for the Legionaires, as they both scored twice. Marlon Geiseler and Jim Edgar each added a goal and an assist. Steve Bisson turned in a fine performance, setting up three goals.

As a team, these boys hadn't beaten Owen Sound, an "AA" team since they were atomaged, a span of six years.

Midland was inspired by the news that they will be going to the Silver Stick tournament in Sarnia, after apparently not qualifying at the regional tourney recently in Midland.

Coach Andy Traynor passes on the news that because the champion and consolation champs from another Ontario district are unable to go to Sarnia, as Consolation champions of the Midland regional tourney, Midland was extended an invitation to compete. They play Port Hope on Jan. 21 to open the tournament.

Midgets' next game is in Owen Sound tonight at 9:30 p.m. and they return home next Wednesday night for an 8 p.m. encounter with Collingwood.
