Meaford wins Div. 3 Tankard

Southern Ontario Ladies Curling Association Tankard Divisional Championship for Division Three was held at Midland Curling Club on Tuesday, March 8.

Division three is made up of districts, nine, 10, 11 and 12. Meaford represented district nine, while Stroud is in district 10, Parry Sound, 11, and Oakwood, from near Lindsay, is from district 12.

The curlers played a double-rink competition. This means that two teams from one district played two teams from another, and the two games were combined with the total scores counting.

In the first game Meaford beat Oakwood 13-12. The skips for Meaford were Helen Miller and Olive Richardson. "Skipping" for Oakwood was Brenda Moynes and Nancy Hanna.

In the second game

Area 3 junior girls B-ball won by Regent

Last Friday evening, the Area 3 junior girls' basketball tournament held at St. Theresa's High School for elementary schools was won by Regent School. Teams from Huron Park, Parkview, Bayview, Port McNicoll and Regent competed in the round-robin play.

Parkview won the B pool of play with two lopsided victories. The standard of play was

Stroud beat Parry Sound 15-12. The winning skips for Stroud were Penny Bassett and Cathy McFadden, while the skips for Parry Sound were Shirley Hurd and Lolly Cummings.

In the final game, Meaford came out on top of Stroud 15-14 and will therefore advance to the S.O.L.C.A. Tankard Championships at Thornhill on March 23rd. They will be joined by three other divisional championship teams.

Grace Ough, district ten representative for the S.O.L.C.A., and from the Barrie Country Club, was very pleased with the calibre of play by the curlers, and was amazed at how close the competition was over the entire day.

remarkable considering the girls were in Grades 5 and 6.

In the final game, Regent overcame a 6-point deficit at half time with some strong scoring from Jenny Hawkins and Denise Greenwood to jump into a 33-23 victory. Rhonda Kennedy displayed some great defence and ball-handling to lead the Regent team. Tina Brabant, Carrie Stitt and Michelle Sabourin handled the rebounding in all games. For Parkview, Shelly McMartin, Heather Higgs and Nancy Fallis led the scoring while Kim Snake played some excellent two way basketball.

A special thanks to the boys from St. Theresa's for refereeing.

Curling action at PCC this weekend

Two exciting and fun-filled curling bonspiels are "on ice" at Penetang Curling Club this weekend.

Tomorrow is the Bryant's Jewellers Bonspiel for ladies. Eight rinks will compete in the all-day affair, which will be followed by a supper and awards presentation. Should be a good time. Sunday at PCC, is the annual Masonknight 'Spiel, which sees the local Knights of Columbus hosting their curling counterparts from the area Shrine and Masonic organizations. Play begins at 1 p.m. Fans and spectators are welcome at both attractions.
