Still stopping pucks

his team to the "A" championship. Top right, Bill Porritt of Etobicoke played every game for his team, and bottom photo, Terry "Tiger" Moore was his usual flamboyant self in the nets for both Midland and Elmvale's Georgian Bay Indians.

Hockey Trivia Quiz (Answers on Page 11)

Back to hockey again this week. This will be the toughest one yet, and it's all about current players and teams. Let's see how much you know about to-day's NHL.

1. Name the third player on the New York Islanders' line with Bryan Trottier and Mike Bossy. (Hint: He scored 35 goals last year.)
2. Who moved into sixth place on the All-time NHL scoring list this week?

3. Name the three players who scored at least 60 last year.
4. Who led the Montreal Canadiens in scoring last year? How many points did he have?
5. Name the player who led his team in scoring last year, and then was traded for his efforts.
6. Who led the NHL in penalty minutes last year?

7. Name the "other" Edmonton Oiler who scored 100 points last season.
8. Who was the only player in the NHL to lead his team in scoring while serving less than 10 minutes in penalties?
9. Which team had the best won-lost record at home in the 1981-82 season? On the road?
10. Which team changed divisions this year without moving from one city to another?

House league hockey tourney next week

Next week at the Midland Centennial Arena, there will be 46 teams, including 21 from Midland, involved in the annual House League tournament.

Hockey teams from Penetang, Coldwater, Oro, Parry Sound, Bracebridge, Collingwood, Meaford, Mactier, Elmvale and Midland will be taking part in the week-long affair.

Monday's games, starting at 8 a.m. will be devoted to Bantam division games, while Tuesday will be Pee-wees, Wednesday will be Atom, Thursday, Novice, and Friday, Tyke and Pee-wee.

Saturday will be taken up with Consolation and Championship title games. Action on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday will begin at 8 a.m., while Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday action will commence at 9 a.m.

Tickets will be sold throughout the week on chances to win valuable prizes. Some of the prizes include a 12 inch black and white television, a hockey helmet, an autographed hockey stick by Wayne Gretzky and Rick Vaive, an AM-FM radio eight-track tape player, and lots more.

Admission charge for the tournament is $2 per day for adults, $1 for students and seniors, and a weekly pass available for $5, good for all six days.

In the conference room at the arena, the organizers will be running a "family centre". Video games, card tables, and other distractions will be available for families of fans and players alike. It's an effort to make this tournament a truly family-oriented event.

As well, Midland Minor Hockey Association Ladies' Auxiliary will be holding a bake sale during the week.

Midland mayor Al Roach will be present on Monday morning to drop the puck and officially open the week's action. Midland and Parry Sound will be squaring off, so come on out early, and enjoy the action all week.

Play ball! Midland Day at Jay game? It could happen, IF...

Midland Chamber of Commerce wants to boost Midland this summer by sponsoring a Midland Day at a Toronto Blue Jay Game.

The Chamber is asking all service clubs and interested citizens to participate.

A Midland Day at the ball park entails the purchase of 500 tickets. Special discounts will be offered for children and senior citizens.

Time will be allotted on field for program events including participation in the 1st pitch ceremony.

All in all, it looks like a fun day and a great opportunity to boost Midland.

Sail away seminar set for Summer '83

Sailors, get your boat out of dry dock, polish your brass buttons and be ready for Summer '83!

Sail Away, a seminar co-sponsored by Georgian College and the Ontario Sailing Association (Georgian Bay-Lake Simcoe zone) will be held April 9 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the College's Barrie Campus.

The seminar is open to all sailors in the Georgian Bay-Lake Simcoe area, whether they sail dinghies or large cruising yachts.

Sail Away is divided into morning and afternoon sessions and features a luncheon address by Doug Keary.

Keary is president of the Ontario Sailing Association and manager of team training for our America's Cup Team. He will outline selection for and training of the crew for Canada One.

Participants in the seminar will choose one of two morning sessions and one of three afternoon workshops. Session A in the morning, features Navigation with Jim Russell of Westbrook Sailing Schools, Collingwood. Part 1 deals with Basic Coastal Navigation and Part 2 gives sailors "A Bag of Navigational Tricks".

Session B is geared to racing enthusiasts. In Part 1, participants will be given a description of the MORC and PHRF handicapping systems. Part 2, led by Olympic Helmsman Roger Green, deals with starting manoeuvres and tactics from the skipper's point of view.

Afternoon sessions include: Cruising Georgian Bay with Jim Kilgour, photographs and tales of adventure in Georgian Bay; So You Want to Buy a Boat, a look at yacht design features with Jack Pady and Bill Goman of Express Yachts and Protest Committees with Carol Percy. This last session outlines procedures and jury work for club race committee members.

For information about Sail Away registration, call Tom Morrissey, Program Supervisor, Continuing Education, in Orillia (705) 325-2705, Ext. 219 or dial 1-800-461-0218.
