

Program - introduction to brass

The Brass Company is featured in the final performance of the Kitchikewana Festival Series at Midland Secondary School, April 15, at 8. Tickets may be purchased at MSS during the day prior to the performance. The Brass Company features George Stimpson, French horn; James Spragg, trumpet; and John Dowden, trombone.

Ken Woods, chairman of the Festival committee, reports that the premiere series this year has been well received and plans are now well underway for the 1983-84 series. Next year's series of performances will be released next Friday during the Brass Company's performance.

The Brass Company program provides a good introduction to the brass instruments, as well as providing a wide variety of music. The pieces range in style from the Renaissance to the 20th Century, including folk music and the latest pop tunes as an extra treat. Woven between the pieces is an entertaining and educational demonstration of the instruments.

Some insights into various aspects of each piece of music is also given. The trio encourages audience participation throughout the program.

The following selections will provide the basis for the program. The company reserves the right to adapt the basic repertoire at its own discretion.

Beethoven, Trio Opus 87; Bach, Three Part Invention No. 2; Corelli, Trio Sonata No. 1; De Jong, Wisconsin Folk Music; Decker, Richard, English Madrigal Suite.

Frachenspohl, Trio; Hartley, Walter, Two Pastiches; Isaac, Three Pieces; Josquin des Pres, Three Pieces.

Nelhybel, Trio; Parker, Rag; Poulenc, Sonata; Stimpson, Irish Folk Songs; Warnaar, The Town Musicians.

The Brass Company is pleased to include in its program The Town Musicians, written by Brad Warnaar specifically for the Company. Based on The Town Musicians of Bremen, the piece incorporates dialogue and music.

Volunteer artistry

Students at some area elementary schools are making posters to promote "Volunteer Week", which runs April 18-24 in Huronia. Anyone who helps out or does work without getting paid is considered a volunteer. Mrs. Bridgeman's grade 7 class at

Emergency service

Royal Victoria Hospital in Barrie has received Ministry of Health approval to go ahead with plans to expand its emergency department and build a new 16-bed addition for critically ill patients.

Construction is expected to start in the fall, after final working drawings and specifications are completed and tenders called.

The hospital's busy emergency department recorded 40,000 visits in 1974, contrasted with 56,700 visits projected for 1983.

The ministry will pay two-thirds of the cost of the work.
