by LINDA HOGG

Hard working volunteers find it difficult to continue the services they have provided so adequately for our community all winter long, during our beautiful warm sunny days of summer. The volunteers require a holiday if they expect to continue to give their enthusiasm, skills and time to our community.

Family commitments require some volunteers to spend the summer months with their children or relatives.

Unfortunately, the needs of the aged, and the handicapped continue all year round. If you have never volunteered before, right now is an ideal time to widen your life and make a difference in your community. We have 50 volunteer positions available in various organizations.

The local nursing homes are planning their recreation activities for the spring and summer months. They would like volunteers to assist seniors with shopping trips, taking them for walks, a visit to the library.

Help is needed for barbecues, picnics, short trips and other summer activities. Volunteers could help in other organizations in such areas as the gift shops, boutiques, to help handicapped children with their summer activities.

If you are willing to volunteer a few hours of your time please call. We have many interesting and worth while volunteer jobs listed at the Volunteer Bureau, Civic Centre, 526-6801.

Chief Bates

Busy cops

During the month of April, there were nine reportable and four non-reportable motor-vehicle accidents probed within Midland's town limits.

The information is contained in a report tabled this week by Police Chief Ernest Bates at a town council meeting.

The chief's report also shows as a result of some of the above mishaps on our streets, a total of seven persons suffered a variety of injuries.

In other police department news for the month of April, it was noted: 57 charges were laid under the Criminal Code, 15 under the Liquor License Act, 46 under local Bylaws and 65 under the Highway Traffic Act including 50 for speeding.

Last month a total of 183 tags were issued for parking violations in Midland.

No Sunday council meetings either

A letter in support of, and a letter opposing, the playing of bingo in Midland on Sunday were considered, and ordered filed, at the most recent meeting of Midland council.

Woodland Drive resident Delphine Mitchell stated her opposition to Sunday bingo, and also chided the council for meeting on the seventh day.

"I have also heard that you have council meetings on a Sunday. We all need a day of rest. You should not be working yourselves on Sunday, nor making secretaries come in to work."

Cathy Fournier, no address given, said in a letter that she knows many people who go to Orillia and Toronto to play bingo on Sunday for something to do. The supporter of Sunday bingo in Midland says that she goes to Toronto and leaves her money in that city.
